Compromise Tram Offer Meets Defeat

Latest Move of Opponents Rebuffed by County Board

The assembly committee on conservation late Wednesday killed AB 3030, which would repeal the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority act and doom the Tramway. Earl Coffman, authority member, hailed the action as "a great victory for the Tramway."

Earl Coffman, Francis F. Crocker, members of the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority, and Henry Lockwood, authority attorney, appeared before the state assembly committee on conservation, planning and public works yesterday to present arguments against AB 3030, a measure which would kill the Tramway act.

The bill, introduced at the request of the Sierra club and other like organizations, would repeal the measure which established the Winter Park Authority.

IN THE MEANTIME, opponents of the Tram suffered another defeat at a hearing before county supervisors this week. Rebuffed a week ago when supervisors voted 4 to 1 to table a resolution supporting the anti-tram measure, they reappeared this Monday.

This time they sought a compromise measure, one which would limit the acreage for the upper end of the Tramway.

SUPERVISORS, in a split vote, agreed to consider the request but on Tuesday, at a renewal of the hearing, voted unanimously to refuse to support the compromise proposal.

When the proposal to reduce the area covered by the authority at the upper end was introduced Monday, there were no Tramway supporters present. Coffman and Lockwood were in Sacramento, and as the compromise proposal was a surprise move, no other members of the authority were present.

PHILIP L. BOYD, assemblyman who worked for the passage of the tramway measure a decade ago, was informed of the move and appeared before supervisors Monday to protest. Crocker went to Riverside Tuesday and another authority member, V. W. Grubbs joined in opposition.

The opponents had said they would drop opposition to the See TRAMWAY, Page 4a

46th Season Ends Sunday at Desert Inn

The Desert Inn closes its gates on Sunday at the end of its 46th season.

Resident Manager James Geggie said today that this has been a very good season with many conventions and conferences and guests from all over the world.

The Moore Business Form Group leaves today. About 35 Pacific Coast bankers and their wives will be there until Sunday for the Bank Operations Forum. Around 70 business women of Sigma Alpha Sorority will be there this weekend, having luncheon and banquet on Saturday.

The Inn will re-open in the middle of October.

Special CHP Patrol Issues 471 Tickets in Eight Days

A total of 471 citations were issued by the special California Highway Patrol enforcement unit operating between Palm Springs and Indio on Highway 111, during the eight days it was assigned to this area. Capt. Vernon Black, Indio area commander, reported this week.

The patrol left this area due to the low accident rate which was the result of the five-man, five-car concentration on motor vehicle code violations. It was under the direction of Sgt. Ernest Elmore.

THE FINAL PRELIMINARY SURVEY is near completion and construction will begin this summer on Cameron Center, the huge new $5,000,000 shopping center on South Palm Canyon. This was the report from Jerry Rogers above left, analyst for the Larry Smith company of Seattle, top shopping development experts, during his visit here this week. He is shown above going over final plans with William Cody, architect for Cameron Center, and Russell Wade, of Reid-Wade, Realtors, who will serve as general manager and exclusive agent for the project.

11 from Village to Join in Annual Visitadores Ride

Eleven Villagers will be among the 500 men from throughout the country, Hawaii, Canada, France and Mexico, who will participate in the twenty-fifth annual ride of Los Rancheros Visitadores at Santa Barbara May 6 through 14. Scheduled to make the trip are: Trav Rogers, Frank Bogert, Dick Atterbury, Ray Ryan (returning from a South America visit especially for the event), Earl Henderson, Olen Sharp, Ed Houghton, Bill Grant, Johnny Boyle, Don Marteen and Tex Kidwell.

BOGERT WILL BE announcer at all events of the group, including quarterhorse races, the gymkhana and rodeo. Marteen is in charge of the entertainment.

The Trek will start from Skofield Camp near Santa Barbara, where the entire group of 500 riders will congregate on Friday, May 6. The following day is the traditional ceremony at the Santa Barbara Mission, and the group, dressed in all its finery, parades four miles to the Mission for benediction by the Franciscans.

ROUTES AND CAMPS follow a familiar pattern, as do all events such as trapshooting competition, gymkhana, rodeo, quarterhorse races, a 4-H cattle show at a 4-H Camp the group provided.

On Friday, May 13, the entire group will visit Mission Santa Inez to pay respects, in a ceremony similar to that held at Santa Barbara, and on May 14 the riders will break camp and return to their respective homes throughout the world.

$1500 Wrist Watch is Reported Found

Finding of an expensive gold wristwatch with a gold band has been reported to police by Miss Pat Garber, employee of a local hotel.

The watch is valued at $1500, according to Detective Bob White.

TEENAGERS MAP PLANS FOR WHOLESOME FUN

By BILL RASHALL

When a group of teenagers earnestly desire to help each other keep out of trouble and on the broad avenue of good wholesome fun, they deserve the plaudits of the entire community.

Into The Desert Sun office the other day walked two teenagers, a little reticent, soft-spoken and utterly polite. They represented the Junior Youth Co-ordinating Council of Palm Springs. This group works with the adult Youth Co-ordinating Council and I am informed their advice at these meetings with their elders is taken quite seriously and generally adopted.

MIKE BLACK who is president of the Junior Council and Connie Cornelius, who has the imposing title of commissioner of publicity are confronted with, what are to them, two mighty big projects.

One of them is to raise sufficient money to hold the high school graduating party at The Tennis Club May 27. The other is the creation of a night club for teenagers.

Both of these are declared to be worthy projects; not in the projects alone but the importance which the teenagers themselves hold them.

PURELY AND SIMPLY it is aimed at keeping those who need such "keeping" off the streets, away from bad company and in an environment productive of clean wholesome fun.

It developed that $300 is

Historical Group Meets Today

Third monthly meeting of the Palm Springs Historical Society will be held at 2 p.m. today, Thursday, at the Welwood Murray Memorial Library, with Mrs. Frank Bennett, chairman, presiding.

Plans for a personal follow-up of the membership mail solicitation will be discussed. Mrs. William Rogers is chairman of the membership committee.

Summer plans for the group include classification of all material received to date: pictures, letters, a cornerstone, diploma, first telephone used here, etc. First exhibit of the Society will be held at the start of the fall season.

Boy and Girl Arrive

A son weighing six pounds thirteen ounces was born at Desert Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buresh of 633 South Palm Canyon drive on Saturday April 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Henry of Cathedral City are the parents of a new daughter weighing six pounds eight and one quarter ounces. The Henrys' little girl was born on April 24 at Desert Hospital.

needed to hold the graduating party at The Tennis Club. Of that amount I am informed the high school students may raise $110. The rest is being sought as a contribution to such an alluring party that it would, in the words of the two ambassadors to The Desert Sun, "keep some of the members of the graduating class and other high school students from running rampant, holding wild parties around town, and from becoming involved in automobile accidents."

Now that's pretty good coming from teenagers who are the targets of much criticism throughout the nation.

RESIDENTS of Palm Springs can help this cause or project as the Youth Co-ordinating Council terms it.

The Night Club for teenagers is also worthy of serious consideration. The sponsoring group of youngsters who are seeking adult sponsorship for the night club represent every known youth organization in the Village.

They are: Leo Rojo member of The Tourists; Connie Cornelius of the S. P. O.; Marilyn Strauss of S. F. O.; Carolyn Knapp, Job's Daughters; Skip Martin, DeMolay; Ralph Estrada, Youth Center; Wendell Hines, Stockers; Mike Black, Palm Springs High School; Melinda Hough, Catholic Youth Organization; Kent Werges, Community Church; Sue Arnsberg and Isaiah Seniors.

"WE WOULD LIKE a night club for juniors with everything in the way of entertainment, dancing and food that adults enjoy except, of course, alcoholic beverages," the officers of the Youth Co-ordinating Council announced. Officers of the latter group in addition to Black, and Miss Cornelius are: Skip Martin, vice-president; Marilyn Strauss, secretary; Melinda Hough, treasurer. Let's help these kids to help themselves.

Most Attractive Summer Windows to Win Prizes

Merchants don't reach for that brown paper.

In another move toward keeping the beauty of Palm Canyon Drive pristine during vacation periods, the Retail Merchants Division of the Chamber of Commerce will again hold a contest for the best window displays on shops while closed.

Directed by Merchant Chairman Adrian Rosen, the decision was reached at a regular meeting Tuesday. The contest committee is composed of Larry Quinn, chairman; George

Coroner's Jury Fixes No Blame in Traffic Death

Funeral services, for Silas Sterling Stahl, 75, 1441 East Ramon road, who died as result of injuries suffered when he was struck by a car Saturday evening, were held at San Bernardino Tuesday, with the Rev. Horace Cushing officiating. Private cremation services followed.

Stahl was struck by a car driven by Una Heimberg, 1935 Highway 111, while he was walking across Ramon road in the 1400 block toward a grocery store, at 7:18 p.m. He died about four hours later at Desert Hospital, due to traumatic shock resulting from multiple fractures.

Mrs. Heimberg was not held, but she was cited by police for not having a driver's license in her possession, and for not having a registration card in the car. Mrs. Stahl, a witness to the accident, corroborated her statement that she was traveling at a slow rate of speed, according to investigating officers.

A coroner's inquest Tuesday resulted in an "open verdict." Stahl, a native of Ohio, was a retired office manager of the Los Angeles internal revenue office. He and his wife, Chloe, divided their time between Big Bear and Palm Springs.

Survivors besides his widow, are a daughter, Florence Buchterkirchen of Big Bear, and a granddaughter.

Wiefels and Son Mortuary was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Hotel Association to Elect Tuesday

New officers of the Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment Association will be elected at a meeting of the newly elected and hold-over directors at 4 p.m. Tuesday, at the Casitas Del Monte, President Dan McGowan reports.

Eight new directors were elected at the annual dinner meeting of the group held last Wednesday evening at the Chi Chi.

Golf Course Top Need of City, Report

Recreation Expert Gives Result of Survey in Village

Construction of a municipal golf course, and closer coordination between existing agencies and services, are the two primary park and recreation needs of the City of Palm Springs, Buford Bush, recreation specialist with the California Recreation Commission, told 32 interested citizens at a meeting in the council chambers Tuesday evening.

These two recommendations were among 12 included in a 25-page report submitted to city council, and read at the meeting by Bush. The survey had been requested by city council, together with the Palm Springs Unified School District, Welfare and Friendly Aid (governing body of the Youth Center), Boys Club, Park and Recreation board, and Youth Coordinating Council.

ALL GROUPS were represented at the meeting, and participated in an hour-long question-and-answer period which followed Bush's presentation of the report.

The recreation specialist listed closer coordination of activities as the primary need, but said that site acquisition of an 18-hole public golf course was necessary "to increase the recreation resources available to the tourist-vacationer and, in particular the tourist-vacationer without community contacts or access to private clubs and facilities."

In fact, he told the group that at the start of the survey, he "was very surprised to find that there wasn't a municipal golf course here."

IN RESPONSE to questions from the audience regarding financing of the course he said that the city had established a precedent with its bond issue for the Polo Grounds, but quickly added that he was not recommending such action.

Mayor Florian Boyd and Councilwoman Ruth Hardy told Bush and the audience that council was "working very diligently on the project," and had investigated all possibilities as to its establishment.

A total of 12 recommendations were included in the report, which was termed by Bush as a "blue print for future study," and not necessarily a finalized program for enactment.

RECOMMENDATIONS of major interest were:

That the Mayor's Coordinating Council study the report in a series of exploratory meetings, and review existing recreation facilities in order to further coordination among the respective agencies.

A director of parks and recreation to be employed, with the responsibility for the administration of the recreation services; management of the Polo Grounds; promotion of events of community and tourist interest, and operation and development of park and golf course facilities.

Changing the position of the city recreation director to that of superintendent of recreation, and relieving him of such duties as baseball and softball announcing, scoring and timing duties, and such other tasks which are normally handled by part-time leaders. The recreation department needs this time in the more valuable responsibility of informing the public and tourists of available facilities.

Desert Hospital Directors Attend State Gathering

Desert Hospital President Kenneth Kirk, Directors Ed Hawkins and Florian Boyd, Attorney Roy Colegate, and Administrator Robert Henwood on Monday attended the annual meeting of the California Hospital District Directors' Association, held in San Francisco.

The meeting was held prior to the convention of the Western Association of Hospitals in that city.

Among matters discussed at the meeting was the current study for enlargement of the local hospital.

State Hotel Association to Meet Here

Annual convention of the California State Hotel Association will be held at Palm Springs November 6 through 8. It was announced by Edmond A. Rieder, president of the association and general manager of the Sheraton-Palace in San Francisco.

Rieder appointed Harold J. Smith, president of the Hotel Sarrillo in Santa Barbara, as convention chairman.

Headquarter hotels for the convention will be the Desert Inn and the Oasis.

More than 1,000 delegates are expected and will be at the above two hotels, El Mirador and many others.

Name Potts Head of Reserve City Bankers' Ass'n

Frederic A. Potts, president of the Philadelphia National Bank, was elected president of the Association of Reserve City Bankers at the closing session held by the group at El Mirador Hotel Wednesday.

He succeeds R. Crosby Kemper of Kansas City, Missouri. Harris C. Kirk, senior vice president of the American Trust company of San Francisco, was named vice president, and Joseph J. Schroeder of Chicago, will continue as secretary.

New directors named for three year terms are: Richard A. Ashton, vice president of the Continental Illinois Bank and Trust company; Henry T. Bodman, general vice president of the National Bank of Detroit; Kenton R. Cravens, president of the Mercantile Trust company, St. Louis, Missouri, and William L. Day, president of the Pennsylvania company in Philadelphia.

The convention, which started Monday, was the 44th annual meeting of the group. More than 300 leading bankers from throughout the country were in attendance.

Van Association Opens Sessions

More than 300 members of the California Moving and Storage association are scheduled to arrive in Palm Springs by this morning for the 37th annual convention of the group Thursday through Saturday.

Headquarters hotel will be El Mirador. Exhibits and diversified industrial displays are planned, and the group will be addressed by nationally known speakers.

Clarence C. Lockett of Sacramento, is president of the association.

Benny's Garage Looted by Thief

Car wheel and tire thieves were active in the Village again Tuesday evening, this time entering the garage at the home of Jack Benny, 987 Avenida Palos Verdes, between 11:30 p.m. and 8:10 a.m., and removing two tires and wheels from a car parked there.

Owner of the vehicle was Taft B. Schreiber of Los Angeles.

Three thefts were reported last week, involving seven wheels and tires.

Second Annual Gridiron Dinner Scheduled May 10

For fun and for laughs—the second annual Retail Merchants gridiron dinner will honor the Palm Springs press, Tuesday, May 10, at the Chi Chi.

Again arranged under the direction of Adrian Rosen, president of the Retail Merchants Division of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce, the dinner will be open to all.

The affair is patterned after a similar affair held for the Washington press during which the foibles and frailties of all are liberally lampooned.

Appointment Expected by Board Today

Final Selection of Superintendent for District Scheduled

Wallace R. Muelder, assistant superintendent of schools for Riverside county since September, 1950, was reported to be the leading candidate for the position of superintendent of the Palm Springs Unified school district as members of the board of education prepared to make their selection at a meeting tonight.

The board has narrowed the list of candidates for the position to a small field and expects to complete its study and announce the appointment in an adjourned meeting at Frances S. Stevens school this evening.

MUELDER HAS HAD long experience in educational work. During his term as assistant county superintendent, during the summer months of 1953 he taught educational administration at the University of Southern California. In 1947-50 he was professor of physics at El Camino college in Lawndale and from 1946 to 1949 was physics professor at U.S.C.

He holds degrees of Bachelor of Science, 1947, Western Illinois State; Master of Science and Educational Administration, U.S.C. 1947 and Doctor of Education, U.S.C. 1952.

HE HAS SERVED on school committees and administrative staffs of more than 50 school districts in Southern California and on screening committees for administrative positions in many districts including Los Angeles.

He acts as authorized agent and secretary in many districts of Riverside county, especially those involved in building programs. He holds membership on many state school committees, especially those on financing and educational management.

He is now a member of the research committee of the Association of School Business Officials in the United States and Canada. During the war he served in the navy.

MUELDER has many school publications to his credit. He is married and the father of two children.

Ray Johnson, county school superintendent, when told Muelder was being considered for the local position said:

"I hate very much to lose him from my staff as I believe he is one of the leading educators in the United States but if he is appointed to the position in Palm Springs, I am glad that he is going into one of the finest schools in the country."

Excitement

Burros, Snake Bees and Pigeons

From runaway burros, to a slithering racer snake, a swarm of bees and a carrier pigeon which flew through the open window of a house.

These were all problems faced by Palm Springs police officers Tuesday, as calls came in from citizens in distress.

Most physical energy was expended in rounding up the burros which broke loose from the Burro Train, 977 South Palm Canyon drive, and were wandering up and down the highway.

The New York cut dinner, including the Gridiron activities and the Chi Chi show, are included in tickets at $5 each. They are available at Adams and at the Chamber of Commerce.

Tom Kieley, of the Desert Inn, will act as master of ceremonies, with the Reverend William Blonden giving the invocation. A serious note will be the presentation of a memorial gavel to the president of the association in honor of Isadore Nelson, long a leader in the group, who died last year.

Suspect Faces Molesting Quiz

Roscoe Blake Shingleton, 55-year-old transient, admitted allegations of attempted child molesting in justice court Tuesday, and was bound over to superior court for sentencing. Shingleton admitted having committed similar offenses throughout his entire life, including almost every Southern California city, and that this was the first time he had been apprehended. Detective Ted Greene reported. Shingleton was arrested at 7:40 p.m., Monday, six minutes after police had received a report from a 15-year-old youth concerning attempted molestation of himself and a nine-year-old girl, neither of which was successful. Bail was set at $5,000 by Judge Eugene Theriault.

PURSE IS LOST

Loss of a change purse in the downtown area, containing approximately $23 in cash and no identification, was reported to police Monday by Mrs. L. Bolana, 300 Ramon road.

Painting Stolen is Hotel Report

Rustlers were at work at El Mirador hotel over the weekend.

This time they were "painting rustlers," and the object of their attack was a large oil painting, "Down the Canyon" by E. B. Quigley, valued at $945.

Manager Frank Bogert reported the painting missing from its customary display place on Monday. It is one of a series of paintings displayed at El Mirador.

County's Growth Exceeds Rate in All of California

Riverside county is growing at a faster rate than the entire State of California, according to figures received this week by Xavier Lucius, Chamber of Commerce manager.

In estimated population, Riverside county had 204,300 as of July 1, 1954, an increase of 20.1 percent over the 1950 census, while the growth throughout the state has been 17.6 percent.

In car registrations, the county had 83,450 during 1954, an increase of 5.1 percent, while the state average was 3.3 percent.

The county showed an increase of 12.9 percent in the number of phones in use, to 65,472 as of January 1, 1955, while the general average was seven percent.

One of the sweetest guys in town whose outward bravado and gay spirit is steadfastly betrayed by his eyes is Chef Melani, home owner here for many years. The cause of his grief, which he tries to hide so bravely, was the death of his wife a little more than a week ago. She suffered from a bad heart for many years. The two were madly in love with each other and great companions.

Had an opportunity to listen to two of his boys, Tony Marso of the melodic voice and Joe Crisa who sings and plays the guitar. Positively both of these young men are going places, fast and far. Was told that a booking agent for one of the lush night spots turned them down for a local engagement. This same ten percenter should have heard the crowd before whom these boys performed, yell for more and more.

J. CARROLL NAISH, the Irishman who can imitate an Italian better than an Italian can, is preparing an act (as if he had to) for a Las Vegas night club engagement. He told me so himself.

And if you want to hear a comedian who absolutely uses no joke with a soiled wrapping go, see and hear Charlie Carlisle in the Starlite Room of the Chi Chi. He is on the same bill with beautiful Iona Massey and she is nothing other than excellent. The show is beyond comparison with anything at the Chi Chi this season, that is, from a clean sort of a refreshing way, if you know what I mean.

Despite differences of opinion that sometime arise between a newspaperman and a chief of police, and it does in most cities, I have to take a bow in the direction of our Gus Kettmann. The struggle to bring this capable man back to Palm Springs surges upward in my mind immediately and then I start thinking of the esteem in which he is held by others in his profession.

The latest note about Chief Kettmann was his selection to sit on a board with the city manager of Riverside and the personnel manager of Pomona, all three of whom will be charged with the selection of a chief of police for the City of Redlands to succeed that fine gentleman ex-Chief William Slaughter. The fact that our chief should be picked for such a task speaks highly of our police department right here in Palm Springs.

ONE OF THE MOST delightful events of each year since World War II looms deliciously on the horizon. The annual Fish Fry sponsored by the Palm Springs Volunteer Fire department. And little boys and girls—a word of advice—if you want to be present to partake of corn-on-the-cob, salad and the piece d' resistance cold water rainbow trout prepared in deep butter, hurry up and get your ticket! Chief Bill Leoncio announced that only 300 tickets will be sold "and no more." If there is somebody in town whom you haven't seen all Winter long, you'll meet him at the fish fry on the O'Donnell Golf course. That's one event everybody tries to attend.

ONE QUESTIONABLE character adept in the use of paste boards with spots on them such as spades, diamonds, hearts and clubs received a hot verbal drubbing from the head of our police department and was threatened with a roust out of town if he did not desist.

However, as a result of this inquisitorial party our Unedited piece two and two together and arrived at a probable solution of a mystery beating administered to a wealthy home owner here several months ago. The item was carried in this column at that time.

It seems that a burley hoodlum was hired, (he has since been booted out of town) to administer this beating. All of this fracas, it now stands revealed, stemmed from steep losses in a game called gin and the gentleman who was beaten either refused to pay up or demanded payment and did not get same.

UNEDITED

THIS CARD EXPERT who was hauled into the police station won a mere $300.00 prize and demanded payment. He remembered what happened to the beaten victim and armed himself. He so informed the gentleman from whom he had won and COLLECTED. As a result the gin expert was hauled to the puke and searched. No gun but he did spill the entire story. The police know all of the principals involved but we cannot name them here because no one was booked.

The reason why I am wasting space in this column to report this incident is because this community will not stand still and permit the hiring of hoodlums as brutal beater-uppers of persons. No one, no matter how big he thinks he is can pull such shenanigans in Palm Springs. Thanks to an alert police department we got rid of the first case and I personally know somebody is going to get a real talking to—a verbal drubbing, so to speak.

OFFICIALS of the Ojai Country club complained to their county supervisors about the refusal of that body to grant sufficient water for the club's golf links.

"We have to have that water to compete with Palm Springs."

Capt. Reich on Lions' Program

Capt. Herman Reich, USNR, will be the speaker this noon at the meeting of Palm Springs Lions club in the Starlite room of the Chi Chi.

His subject will be "Anti-Submarine Warfare Brought Up to Date."

Leo Baker will be chairman for the day.

Capt. Reich is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis and a member of the U. S. Navy reserve. He saw much action in the South Pacific in World War II.

Cinema Club to Spend Weekend at Wonder Palms

Members of the Los Angeles Cinema club; one of the oldest organizations of its kind in the Southland; will tax the capacity of the Wonder Palms Hotel to the limit over the weekend of April 30th.

The vanguard of cinemadicts headed by the Tom Baskins, social chairman for the club, will arrive in Palm Springs tomorrow to open festivities. From then on until the final guests depart late Sunday afternoon there will be an ever increasing crescendo of flashing bulbs and clicking of shutters to mark the Silver Anniversary of the club's existence.

The highlights of the weekend will be the banquet and film show to be staged in the hotel's dining room Saturday evening and the Sunday morning swim party "a la gay 90s," to be held at the hotel pool.

Red Cross Drive Three Quarters of Way to Goal

The local Red Cross drive went over the three quarter mark Wednesday, reaching $12,118.86.

Fund Chairman Warren Linville announced that the work of Gayle Burns and her committee was instrumental in the success of the past 10 days.

The formal activity of the drive will close on Friday and anyone wishing to send their check to the Red Cross is asked to mail it to Dr. Robert Backstrom, general chairman, American Red Cross, Palm Springs.

Chairman Linville expressed thanks to "all of the people who gave so freely of their time in helping and to those who contributed to the Red Cross Fund for this year."

Annual Anaheim Party for Lions Slated Friday

Members of Palm Springs Lions club will trek to Anaheim tomorrow for the annual joint meeting with members of that club.

The Anaheim club originally sponsored the local Lions club and each year the two get together, alternating visits.

Tomorrow's program calls for the customary golf tournament in the afternoon, a reception and dinner in the evening.

Stanley Rosin is chairman of golf activities for the Villagers.

(Anderson Photo)
FEATURED ARTISTS in the Civic Chorus presentation of the instrumental portion of the Bach Festival last weekend were Albert Vertchamp, violinist, Mary Hoover, pianist, Christine Tomlinson, pianist, and Harry Tomlinson, organist and pianist.

Civic Chorus Outstanding in Annual Bach Festival

Harry Tomlinson's Palm Springs Civic Chorus has set high standards for itself and for its listeners; and with notably few exceptions (primarily in its presentation of guest soloists) has managed to maintain an excellent average. Its Bach Festival of this past weekend reached an all-time high, consistent throughout both performances, and drawing its largest audiences for the season.

Saturday night's concert was devoted to the presentation of some of Bach's instrumental music. It is common practice for the "non-believer" to think of Bach as confusing and complicated fugues badly played on an organ. Tomlinson, playing his own Baldwin Organ, demonstrated the fallacy of such sophism particularly in his interpretation of "Hark! A voice saith all are mortal," and in the opening "Komm Susser Tod"—one of the most reflective and beautiful of Bach's shorter works. Tomlinson's feeling for color and depth was made evident through his knowledge of the instrument and a clear understanding of the composer's intent.

The aforementioned fugue was well represented in two great works: the Toccata and Fugue in D Minor and the "Prelude and Fugue in D Major." This latter work gave Tomlinson an opportunity to demonstrate some very agile footwork, together with a fine architectural sense which such works demand. There was no confusion here: one was able to follow the theme with comparative ease.

Albert Vertchamp, violinist, was known to a greater part of the audience through his appearance with the group last season. It was no surprise, therefore, to hear him give an authoritative and understanding rendition of the "Sonata in E Major." Vertchamp is a seasoned musician who plays with assurance and sensitivity. Accompanying him at the piano was Mary Hoover, giving him excellent support and cooperation. Miss Hoover has demonstrated her exceptional talent here this year in her own recital, and as a pianist on other occasions. The art of accompanying is rarely understood, but Miss Hoover has made it apparent that it is an art well within her comprehension.

The portions of the program which perhaps gave the greatest pleasure to the largest number of listeners were the vocal solos.

ber were the two groups of duopiano works played by Christine and Harry Tomlinson. Their offerings included both those compositions written expressly for two pianos, and others transcribed for two pianos. The Tomlinsons have, along with the necessary technical skill and musical sensitivity, that quality of complete ensemble which is imperative in this branch of performance. They gave the fugue in the "Fantasia and Fugue in a minor" a delightful folk quality, and their playing of the Andante from the "concerto for Two Pianos" was the prize offering of their scheduled program which included transcriptions of "Jesus, joy of man's desiring" and the "Prelude and Fugue in C minor."—By R. Sunday Concert

Outstanding Event

Sunday evening the Palm Springs Civic Chorus sang the St. Matthew Passion under the direction of Harry Tomlinson. This was probably the most finished performance of the Chorus' 1954-55 season. The soloists and the choir were well matched in calibre; both contributed to a dramatic and musically satisfying experience that appeared to be shared by performers and auditors alike. The choir proved itself capable of creating stunning dramatic effects such as the shout "Barrabas" in the scene with Pilate, and in the chorus "Let Him Be Crucified," followed by a remarkably quick change of expression and mood in the chorale "Wondrous Love." It was most pleasurable to hear the youthful voices of the Palm Valley School Choir in the opening chorus. Their light floating tone was well suited to the Ripieno accompaniment which they sang.

The "Christus," William Venard, displayed the great ability to put himself entirely into his part with the pathos and yet restraint necessary to this role. Robert Gurnee carried excellently the difficult task of the tenor in narrating the entire Passion story by recitative. He evidenced great talent for this particularly exacting art. The soprano and alto solos sung by Evelyn Spikre and Reba Mason respectively were well done. The organ accompaniment of the aria "In Love My Saviour Now Is Dying" created an authentic atmosphere. The incidental soloists acquitted themselves admirably. They included Mary Raphael, Lee Rojo, Jr., R. B. McGrew, Russell Corder and Gil Paquette.—By C. T.

NEW GRAND JURY POLICY ALREADY SHOWING RESULTS SAYS FOREMAN

New "constructive action" policy of the 1955 Riverside county Grand Jury has resulted in solving one problem which has been in existence for some time, Dr. Benjamin Goldberg, foreman, on behalf of the Jury, reported this week.

This was the solving of a problem which had caused disagreement between the County Airport Commission and the board of supervisors, through an agreement to sell surplus equipment and supplies at several airports. Supervisors authorized this action Monday.

THIS NEW POLICY of the Grand Jury was explained as follows by Dr. Goldberg: "When the 1955 Grand Jury was sworn into office by the presiding judge of the superior court, O. K. Morton, the foreman of the Jury gathered the reports of the juries of the past four years and studied them. It was noted that groups of intelligent, interested jurors had spent an entire year studying county government departments and making recommendations for their improvement, and that these reports were included in a general report filed with the proper authorities, and then nothing was done about them. Sporadic explosions might take place in the course of the year, but most of these were duels.

"THE FOREMAN in organizing the Jury discussed this matter. It was decided after each committee studied the department a detailed report would be made of its director, his personnel, property and equipment used, function of the department, and recommendations for its improvement. A uniform detailed outline was prepared for listing this information."

"It was also decided that as these reports came in, they would be carefully checked, the head of the departmental division involved called in, the recommendation discussed, and the changes made, if they were within the budgetary possibility."

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS was notified of this change, and was also told that the "Jury recognized they, the supervisors, were the duly elected representatives of the county, and while the committees of the Jury would meet with them in a business-like way to effect changes, to improve the services of the county government to the people, that if there was any malfeasance of office, the Jury would investigate and insist on prosecution to the fullest extent of the law." A member of the Jury also attends all meetings of the supervisors as an observer.

This procedural change has resulted in solving of the problem in the county airports system, Dr. Goldberg said.

AFTER THE REPORT by the committee concerning the accumulation of surplus equipment and supplies at several airports, which was being depleted by time and vandalism, a conference with Ted Hannah, airports director, and Dudley Steele, commission chairman, revealed that "the supposed activities were minor errors in judgment."

The situation was then explained to the supervisors, and they volunteered to spend a day in Blythe and Thermal reviewing the problem. This was

Kenny's Mobilgas Station to be Host Friday, Saturday

Grand opening is scheduled tomorrow and Saturday, April 29 and 30, for Kenny Paul's rebuilt Mobilgas Station at 1708 North Palm Canyon drive.

The station, in its present location for many years, has been completely rebuilt, remodelled, refurnished and brought into one of the most modern in the Village. The rebuilding job cost $50,000, including all of the latest equipment.

KENNY PAUL said that the station would, as in the past, give 24 hour service for AAA, National Automobile club and Automobile Club of Southern California members. The station has served these clubs since 1943.

Members of the staff of the Mobilgas Station are Bob Hall, assisted by Henry "Hank" LaFuente, Walter E. Orville Mills, Del Schopansky and L. C. Carroll.

MANY GIFTS will be given away during the gala two-day premiere of the new station, ranging from gifts for the youngsters to useful presents for adults.

The station will continue to feature Mobil products marketed by the General Petroleum company, the flying Red Horse company.

Kenny and Virginia Paul have been Villagers for many years and are well known in civic work and enthusiastic horseback riders.

Accomplishments of Desert Sentries to Date Outlined

Mrs. Eleanor Germeaux, chairman of the Desert Sentries, reported on achievements of the recently organized association to date at the April meeting in Palm Desert, outlining the many accomplishments of the group in the short time of its existence.

Desert Sentries was formed in February with its aim highway safety, clean-ups and beautification.

MRS. GERMEAUX said that state and county highway officials are studying a program of safety on Highway 111. She said that State Highway Engineer R. B. Luckenbach and Supervisor Homer Varner have promised action on a program outlined when they were guests of the Sentries at a luncheon at Palm Desert.

At this luncheon speed limits, highway signs and illumination and stop signs were discussed.

An inspection trip to dangerous spots and intersections followed the luncheon.

BEAUTIFICATION of the area has the complete cooperation of the Palm Desert Corporation, she said, and already much has been done. Decrepit fence posts and wires of old fences have been removed, safety islands cleared of rubbish and undergrowth, view obstructing trees have been moved and there is now a clear, long view down the highway in Palm Desert.

Work of the Desert Sentries, she reported, has resulted in a general face-lifting in the area. Boulevard center strips have been improved, landscaping has been done and flowers planted in strips which before had been barren.

The Sentries have appealed to all residents in the area to aid in the plans of the organization.

This Week's Garden Hints FROM THE PALM SPRINGS GARDEN CLUB

Last week we discussed flowering trees, including the citrus whose fragrance engenders romantic notions even in grandmothers. So we shall try to get back to earth this week by discussing non-flowering trees.

There are a great variety of evergreen trees which have proven themselves adaptable to weather conditions on the desert. The most popular of these are the pepper, eucalyptus, olive, palm cypress, cottonwood and sycamore. However, the sycamore will shed its leaves if we have a cold winter.

The Pepper tree (Schinus molle) is a decorative evergreen which is commonly believed to be indigenous to California, but it was brought here from Peru. The pepper is oblivious to both heat and cold, but if not faithfully watered it will develop dry-rot and become brittle and break easily in a bad wind. Keep dead wood cut out, otherwise don't prune as the low-drooping branches add to its beauty. To be assured of the red pepper berries be certain to buy both a male and a female tree.

There are two varieties of the Eucalyptus, which complement each other, the Polyanthemos and the sideroxylon rosea. The Polyanthemos grows taller than the latter and has an oval, grey-green leaf, while the latter has a narrow, lance-shaped leaf. They grow to 100 and 150 feet respectively, so don't plant under an over-hanging roof. Good shade trees are impervious to heat and cold. Will grow in poor, arid soil, but growth can be encouraged with generous watering.

The Olive tree has proven its endurance to neglect and drought here in Palm Springs, although with a moderate amount of care it becomes one of the most beautiful of our shade trees. When planting allow for a wide spread. The tendency in planting new gardens is to bunch everything close together without regard for the future. Don't plant trees as if they were shrubs. Remember, they have big ideas. The olive tree is particularly ornamental if planted in a high well, as in the patio of the Library here. The olive tree was brought to California from Spain, via Mexico. One of the longest-lived of all fruit trees.

The Palm trees are best divided into two classifications—the fan palms and the feather palms. The indigenous Washingtonia filifera of our local canyons, falls in the first classification, while the Date Palm (Phoenix) falls in the latter. Another feather palm is the canariensis which, though it resembles the date palm does not bear fruit. Transplant the latter when young, otherwise it comes to an early end. A good rule to remember when cultivating palms is to keep their heads in the sun and their roots in water.

Of the 6 common varieties of cypress trees, the Arizona cypress seems best adapted to the desert as it resists wind, heat and cold. It grows fuller and not so tall as the Italian cypress, and its foliage is a lovely grey-blue.

The cottonwood, most artistic of our desert trees, next to the sycamore, grows rapidly and gives generous shade. Don't plant near drainage as the roots are greedy and no respecter of plumbing problems. Excellent trees to prevent erosion. Ask for the variety that doesn't rain cotton.

The Sycamore, also common in our canyons, strikes fanciful attitudes. Its grey-green to lime green bark peels off, forming artistic trunk patterns. Everything about the tree is beautiful, including the shape of the leaves and the clusters of nuts. Even when it drops its leaves they are valuable for your compost pile.

Next week we shall discuss indigenous plants that will bear cultivation in your garden.

County Officers Starting to Heed Desert Protests

County officials evidently have started to take notice of complaints expressed by Desert County, Inc., officials, Ted Smith, president, and Lee Odle, secretary-manager, reported this week.

The two Desert County Inc. officials were referring to the recent increases in land valuation assessments in the Hemet area, which in some cases were as high as 500 percent, and brought them to a more equal basis with assessments in the desert area.

The matter was brought to light when taxpayers in the area started a protest movement against the increases and requested that the land assessments be reviewed.

The differential in assessments in the desert and Hemet areas was one of the points stressed in speeches made by Smith and Odle before service clubs in the Fourth supervisory district.

It was also one of the points emphasized in the brochure issued by Desert County, Inc.

"We hope that this is only the first of many steps which may be taken to correct existing inequities," Smith and Odle said.

Mrs. Mur Gazda Taken by Death

Mrs. Mur Mace Gazda, internationally known artist and sculptress and mother of Dr. Mace Gazda of Palm Springs and Chicago, died April 21 at her home in San Diego. She was 77. Burial took place in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery in Orange, where her late husband Dr. J. A. Gazda is buried.

Mrs. Gazda, who lived in Laguna for 25 years before moving to El Cajon two years ago, had exhibited her ceramics and oil paintings in Paris, Chicago and New York. She was a member of the Chicago Art Institute for many years.

Besides her son Dr. Mace Gazda, she is survived by a daughter Mrs. Frances Stover of San Diego; two grandsons, Mace Robert and Gregory Mace Gazda; and a granddaughter Marcia Stover.

Dr. and Mrs. Gazda who had flown out from Chicago to be with his mother, returned there on Sunday. They will be back in Palm Springs around May 30 as their two sons are in school here.

Tramway if the law enabling its construction was amended to remove control of about six square miles from the authority.

SUPPORTERS of the Tramway at the hearing and Coffman and Lockwood, who were in Sacramento, said that amendment of the act would practically kill the project. They said that it would open the way for endless other attempts at amendments and thus nullify all of the work done so far.

Attorney Lockwood at Sacramento said that if a compromise were agreed to, it would mean a new contract "and we would be right back on the merry-go-round."

Motion to Drop Hit-Run Charge Denied by Judge

Superior court judge John Gabbert last week denied a motion to dismiss a felony hit-and-run charge against Mrs. Kay Gleason, 21, Fontana, and set the date of her trial for June 13. Mrs. Gleason is charged with being the driver of the car which struck two women while they were crossing the street in the 1100 block of North Palm Canyon drive at 2:15 a.m., February 13. She was arrested at her Fontana home later in the day, after allegedly leaving the scene of the accident.

In submitting the unsuccessful motion for dismissal, Mrs. Gleason's attorney maintained that a preliminary hearing held here produced various kinds of testimony, but none by which his client could be connected with the offense.

Injured in the accident were Mrs. Samuel Berk of Beverly Hills and Mrs. Doris Rutberg of Hollywood.

No Unfavorable Reports Here on Salk Vaccinations

No serious unfavorable reports have been received by health officials in the Palm Springs area to date, regarding the administration of the Salk Anti-Polio vaccine to school children, local doctors in charge of the first phase of inoculations, reported Wednesday.

A few cases of minor aches and pains and slight fevers were reported in the first couple days after vaccination, but all of these have passed away, they added.

Comment was made following wire service reports Wednesday that all vaccine manufactured by the Cutter Laboratories of Berkeley, was ordered withdrawn from the public. The government took the action pending investigation of six paralytic cases among children inoculated with it. The cases, it said, were in San Diego, Ventura, Napa, Oakland and Chicago.

Senate Hearing Slated Saturday

Senate committee studying juvenile delinquency is scheduled to conduct one of its hearings here Saturday.

The committee, headed by Sen. Estes Kefauver, has been studying juvenile delinquency problems along the Mexican border on a bill now before the senate providing juveniles crossing the border must have a permit.

The committee meets in Phoenix tomorrow.

Stein Club Party on Tap Saturday

The long-awaited Stein Club party will be held Saturday starting at 9 p.m. at Bill and June Weintraub's Barn.

It will be "on the house."

There are about 70 members of the Stein Club at present, whose steins adorn the back bar of The Barn.

A big time is anticipated.

Brother of Local Man is Honored

Charles M. Bogert, brother of Frank Bogert, manager of El Mirador, has been awarded a Guggenheim Fellowship for 1955 in the field of biology, according to word received here.

TAMARISK COUNTRY CLUB champions Alice Heffernan and Milt Hicks display their trophies, which were awarded following completion of the Men's tournament last weekend. Mrs. Heffernan defeated Mrs. Bob Hope, while Hicks won over Edgar Richards.

Milt Hicks New Tamarisk Club Golf Champion

Milt Hicks last weekend became the new club champion of Tamarisk Country Club, defeating Edgar Richards of Los Angeles 1-up after a long hard battle between the two top golfers.

Hicks had moved into the finals with a 1-up victory over John Wood, while Richards eliminated defending champion Jack Tooke in his semi-final round.

In the President's Flight, Red Bernstein of Long Beach defeated Bob McIntyre 1-up. Semi-final results were: Bernstein defeated Richard Bagdasarian, 1-up, and McIntyre edged Bill Moore 1-up.

New Director's Flight champion is Sidney Feuchtwanger, who defeated Lloyd Wood 1-up. The winner moved into the final round by defeating Julian Stiff 1-up, while Wood took a 2 and 1 win from Ace Armsberg.

Trophies to winners were awarded by Club Manager Ted Cadman and Club Professional Ellsworth Vines.

This week club facilities are being utilized by the Southern California Automobile Dealers Association, and other tournaments in the near future are: Glass Dealers Golf Association, May 4, 40 expected; Greyhound Bus Golf Association, May 11, 30 expected, and the Ramblers, May 13 through 15, 32 to participate.

Play in Racquet Cup Tournament Starts Saturday

Play will start Saturday morning in the Racquet Cup Tennis Tournament at the Racquet Club, and continue through Sunday.

This will be the last major tournament of the spring season to be held at the club.

Entries already in serve as an indication that it will be one of the best ever held in its six year history, according to RC professional Dave Gillam, who is in charge of arrangements and play.

Prizes will be awarded to winners in the various events.

Final Test Today for P.S. Netters

Palm Springs high school boys' and girls' tennis teams go to Elsinore today to meet the tennis teams of the high school of that city.

It will be the final test for the local teams as they have won every match in the Riverside County League played so far this season. Victories today will give them undefeated records for the season.

Elsinore is figured to be the strongest opposition so far for the local netters.

Kettmann, who with Krysia, captured the Men's Doubles crown. Trophies were awarded by City Recreation Director Howard Haddock following the completion of the finals at the Tennis Club Sunday.

New Marks Set by Indians in All RCL Divisions

Palm Springs speedsters participated in setting new meet records in all three classifications, Varsity, Bee and Cee, in the Riverside County League's annual track and field championships held at Perris Saturday.

In the meet, the Indians placed second in the Varsity division with 40½ points, third in Class Bee with 26, and third in Class Cee with 22½. Coachella was first in all three, and Perris and Hemet were second respectively in Class Bee and Cee.

Indians who set new records were:

CLASS A—David Moore, high jump, 6 feet, 2 1/8 inches, breaking old mark of 5 feet 10 inches set by Engle of Coachella in 1947; John Lester, 440, 50.7, breaking old mark of 51.7, set by Joe Coover of Hemet in 1947.

CLASS B—Willie Miller, 100, 10.2, breaking his own mark of 10.4 set last year.

CLASS C—Jimmy Thompson two new records, 100, 10.3, two-tenths of a second better than mark of 10.5 set by Simpson in 1947, and 120 low hurdles, 12.9, four-tenths of a second better than mark of 14.2 set by Smith of Coachella in 1937.

RESULTS OF THE MEET, as concerns Palm Springs youths, follow:

CLASS A—Shot put, Alvin Harrison, second; broad jump, John Lester, second; high jump, David Moore, first; 100 yard dash, Harrison, fourth; 440, Lester, first; 880, Eugene Prieto, first; pole vault, Moore, first; Paul, tie for second; 220, Lester, first; mile, Larry Bruton, second; 880 relay, Palm Springs, third.

CLASS B—100 yard dash, Willie Miller, first; 660 yard run, Kenny Beach, first; Avila, fifth; high jump, Hayes, fifth; 220, Miller, first; 1320, Chapin, first; Egan, fourth; 660 relay, Palm Springs, third.

CLASS C—Broad jump, Nelson, second; high jump, Allen, tie for third; pole vault, Jackson, fourth; 100 yard dash, Thompson, first; Anderson, fifth; 120 low hurdles, Thompson, first; 440 relay, Palm Springs, second.

In grand totals in the meet, Coachella took top honors with 157 points, and Palm Springs was second with 89. Other rankings were: Perris 67½, Hemet 60, Elsinore 38, Beaumont 24½, Banning 22½, and San Jacinto 20½.

Suds Lead Loop in Third Week

The Seattle Rainiers are still feeling the beneficial effects of the Palm Springs sun.

They wound up the third week in the Pacific Coast League leading the pack by a game and a half taking six out of their last seven games from Sacramento for a 13-8 standing.

This week they entertain San Diego, 1954 champions.

REPEAT PERFORMANCES MARK SENIOR NET PLAY

Repeat performance.

This summarizes play in the Championship finals of the Palm Springs City Recreation Senior Tennis tournament held Sunday at the Tennis Club, as all 1954 champions repeated as titlists for 1955.

John Krysia and Maurice Smith again tangled in the Men's Singles finals, with Krysia for the second straight year defeating the two-time singles champion, 6-2, 6-1. One more win for either player and they will acquire permanent possession of the trophy donated by Harry Plymire five years ago. This trophy has been renamed the Harry Plymire Memorial Trophy since his recent death.

THE WOMEN'S SINGLES was another repeat as Marjorie Jackson defeated the three-time champion, Betty Stumpf, in straight sets but in a terrific match, 7-5, 6-4. Mrs. Jackson was ahead all the way, with a late rally by Mrs. Stumpf failing short in each set.

Gus Kettmann and John Krysia scored a victory in the Men's Doubles again, defeating Maurice Smith and Don Williams in the only three set match of the afternoon, 6-1, 3-6, 6-3.

Smith and Mrs. Stumpf won the Mixed Doubles title, defeating Kettmann and Mrs. Jackson, 9-7, 6-3.

Mrs. Chambers SMC Winner

Mrs. Ada Chambers, with 28 putts on 18 holes, won the putting contest for women golfers at Shadow Mountain club last week.

The prize for the day's low score was given by Mrs. Verne Farrington.

Next Monday, women from the Cochran course will be guests at Shadow Mountain club in a tournament.

Tickets Go Fast for Big Fish Fry

Tickets are going fast for the annual Fish Fry staged by the Palm Springs Volunteer Fire Department and Villagers were reminded that, since the event is to be limited to 300 persons, they had better not delay.

The event is scheduled for May 7 at 7:30 p.m. at O'Donnell Golf course and those attending are asked to bring their own silverware.

TO BUILD DWELLING

County department of buildings this week issued a permit to David McPherson of Rancho Mirage for construction of a dwelling and carport, California Builders and Supply company, contractors, to cost $8003.

Ohrt Plans 13th Bicycle Ride to Village Sunday

Hans Ohrt, Beverly Hills bicycle enthusiast and former national cycling champion, will take his 13th annual 124-mile ride to Palm Springs Monday.

His start will be his business place in Beverly Hills and destination Harold Hicks office on Palm Canyon drive.

Ohrt owns a home in La Quinta.

Local Swimming Teams Qualify Many for Finals

Palm Springs swimmers made excellent showings in all three divisions of the Citrus Belt League preliminaries held at the University of Redlands pool Tuesday, to qualify for the finals there at 7:30 p.m., Friday.

Coach Wayland Reynolds Class A, B and C squads are currently in second place in each division, trailing Riverside in the first, and Redlands in the latter two.

Swimmers who place in the finals will become eligible to compete in the CIF preliminaries.

Indian swimmers who qualified Tuesday were:

CLASS A—Richard Bigham, John Cunningham, 50 free style; John Ravese, Dick Pell, 100 breaststroke; Prentiss de Jesus, Kenny Sanders, Marvin Galliani, 200 free style; de Jesus, Doug Hunt, 100 backstroke; Bigham, 100 free style; Ravese, Hunt, individual medley.

CLASS B—Don Bradley, 50 free style; Jerry Greenfield, Dennis Good, 100 breaststroke; John Galliani, Jim Gofforth, 200 free style; Joe Chumley, Tom Murray, 100 backstroke; Bradley, 100 free style; Chumley, Good, individual medley.

CLASS C—Richard Carson, 50 free style; Rollin Binger, Alvin Walet, 50 breaststroke; Bill Holmes, Carson, 50 backstroke.

Diving finals were held Tuesday, with Cunningham placing fourth in Class A, and Gary Crawford second in Class B.

Assemblyman L. M. Backstrand of Riverside county, is back at Sacramento following a trip to Washington, D. C., with a legislative committee to discuss highway programs in California.

The delegation conferred with officials at the national capital on California's share in President Eisenhower's highway construction program.

Building Booms in Cathedral City

Permits valued at $27,908 were issued by the county department of buildings for the Cathedral City area during the week ending April 26, it was reported yesterday.

Five of the permits went to Magallen Homes, Inc., each for a dwelling and garage, each valued at $5,380.

Another permit went to Naley Court, H. E. Colglazier, contractor, for an office to the court to cost $1008.

Speakers Selected for Economic Parley

Dr. George H. Hildebrand, professor of economics at the University of California at Los Angeles, and Frank B. Durkee, California Director of Public Works, have been named keynote speakers for the Fourth Annual Economic Conference to be held at the Riverside Mission Inn Friday, May 6, an announcement from Dr. Gordon S. Watkins, general chairman, said today.

CORRECTION

In announcing the betrothal of Marilyn Cecelia Hanneken, daughter of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. H. H. Hanneken, USMC Ret. of La Mesa, and Marvin C. Logan, the names of his parents were incorrectly listed. The bridegroom elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Logan of 573 South Camino Real. The wedding will take place this Summer.

Thrifty Prepares to Take Care of Anglers' Needs

With fishing season practically here, Wayne McFadin, manager of Thrifty Drug Store in Palm Springs reminded anglers in this area that Thrifty will sell fishing licenses, and now has stocked a complete line of fishing equipment.

The huge display counter which is literally covered with different kinds of reels, poles, flies, sinkers, nets, creels, is a fisherman's equipment haven, as well as economical.

Buyers, representing Thrifty Drug Stores have traveled throughout the United States to buy from the country's top manufacturers, the equipment that is now on sale to the fishing enthusiast of this area. Under this program more than $5,000 worth of fishing equipment has been made available to the Palm Springs store for sale at thrifty prices.

In conjunction with the opening of the new department, the monthly Thrifty contest features prizes to five winners, seven-day vacation trips to La Paz Mexico fishing waters.

Theft of Watch by Shoplifter Reported

Theft of a watch valued at $450 by a clever shoplifter was reported to police Tuesday by Vahan Alechian, owner of Jewels by Alechian, 174 North Palm Canyon drive.

The theft occurred Friday afternoon while Alechian was showing the suspect a number of expensive watches which are locked in a front showcase, according to Detective Bob White, who is in charge of investigation.

putes took place.

In addition, 23.5 per cent of those accidents involving drivers who have been drinking and in which someone was killed or injured, happened within this same time span.

"Sober drivers traveling at speeds safe for conditions, and who are willing to yield the right of way to avoid conflict, will help immeasurably in taking the danger out of early evening travel," Caldwell advised.

$300 WATCH MISSING

Loss of a ladies' wristwatch inset with diamonds, valued at $300, was reported to police Saturday by Mrs. J. B. Marr of Pomona.

Safety Tips

DANGEROUS HOURS

Late afternoon and early evening are the most dangerous hours of the day for drivers. California Highway Patrol reports show that 27.9 per cent of all fatal and injury traffic accidents in unincorporated areas of the state last year occurred between the hours of 4 p.m. and 8 p.m.

"Fatigue, the homeward traffic rush, gathering dusk, short tempers and the after work cocktail are all factors in traffic accidents; a combination of them can be lethal," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell.

"The violations that cause most of the trouble between 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. reflect these factors," he explained.

Caldwell pointed out that 26.1 per cent of death and injury accidents for which speed was responsible occurred during these four hours. During this same interval 35.1 per cent of death and injury accidents resulting from right of way disputes took place.

New Officers of VFW Installed at Ceremonies

Members of Palm Springs Frontier Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars and their guests rallied last night at the clubhouse, 4995 Camino Parocela to install new officers and to hear an excellent program.

The evening started with a potluck dinner and then David W. Dunsworth installed officers for the year.

Dean Pickell was installed commander succeeding George Prosser.

Others installed were Roy Haines, Charles Mills, Hugh Ervin, John Dill and Russell Snyder.

Donivve Ellison was the feature of the program.

150 Gather Here to Honor Eagle Scouts of County

More than 150 Scout executives, leaders and Scouts rallied at Deep Well Inn Monday in the fourth annual Eagle Scout Recognition dinner sponsored by the Riverside County Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Rex Bell, lieutenant Governor of Nevada, one-time western movie star, former leading Scout official in that state and now a successful rancher, was the speaker of the evening discussing the importance of Scouting to a community.

TOP OFFICIALS of the County Scout Council present were C. J. Carlson, president; Joseph L. Hunter, Council vice-president; Carl N. Helmick, Scout executive; Bob Toronto, assistant Scout executive; Loren B. Hunsaker, district executive; John Stieratt and J. Richard Hipskind, field executives.

Each Eagle Scout guest was sponsored by a county civic leader.

Villagers who acted as sponsors were F. F. Crocker, Edwin Silverman, Dr. Milton Portis, John Connors, Carl G. Lykken, Larry Quinn, Henry F. Baker, Harry Hill, David McGahey, Edward L. McCoubrey and Theo Wallington.

LOCAL EAGLE SCOUTS among those honored were Gary Lampman, Kin Preston, Gerschwin Haltman, Tom Larstead and Robert Hillery. Vernon S. Tegland of Riverside was chairman of the dinner and local members of the Eagle dinner committee were Jacques Crommelin and Carl G. Lykken.

Lloyd Simon, former District chairman, and Jimmy Morton, Cub Scout leader, aided on the reception committee.

Sheriff Repeats Request for Pay Raise for Staff

Sheriff Joe Rice again requested the county board of supervisors to give further and immediate study and adjustments of salaries paid to deputies in his office.

In appearing before the board Monday morning, Sheriff Rice said: "I don't know how much longer the taxpayers are going to tolerate the excessive and unnecessary waste of funds caused by the seriously high rate of personnel turn-over in the Sheriff's Office."

The board members were advised that three additional resignations were received over the weekend, and in each case the Sheriff pointed out that the reason for leaving county government was low pay.

Public Schools Week Attracts Many Visitors

Final program in the week-long observance of Public School week in Palm Springs is scheduled for this evening at Katherine Finchy school with an Open House from 7 to 8:15 p.m. with a meeting of the school's Parent-Teacher group to follow in the auditorium.

Large numbers of parents and friends of the schools have turned out during the week.

Starting Monday evening, programs and Open House events were held in each of the schools of the Palm Springs Unified School district.

PROGRAMS WERE HELD at Cathedral, Desert Hot Springs, Thousand Palms, Frances S. Stevens, Cathedral City schools starting Monday with Palm Springs high school, Nellie Coffman Junior high school and the Adult Evening school holding a joint program at the high school Tuesday night.

The high school was opened for visitors at 7 p.m. with Junior high exhibits in the cafeteria. Adult school displays in the library and high school exhibits in the various rooms.

At 8 p.m. the annual Music Festival of the high school and Junior high was staged in the gymnasium under direction of Gustav Patzner, Alex Hammond and David Olson. More than 100 students of the two high schools participated. It was the seventh successive year the program has been staged.

JUNIOR HIGH CHORUS, the high school orchestra and band, combined high school chorus and choir, participated to make it a successful evening.

N. H. Curtis was chairman of the Public School week committee which handled arrangements for the observance with the cooperation of school officials. Other members of the committee were Russell Landrus, John Spargur, A. Belden Crist and Clarence Brechlin.

Every time you turn green with envy you're ripe for trouble.—Supervision.

HARRY OLIVER, center, stands behind some of the insignia of his campaign to publicize the desert at the dinner given in his honor by the Thousand Palms Chamber of Commerce Saturday night. Oliver said that at one time he served as janitor for the Thousand Palms school, hence the sign on the table which he says will adorn the school. Left to right above,

Thousand Palms Honors Publisher Harry Oliver

Harry Oliver, publisher of Desert Rat Scrap Book, commander of Fort Oliver at Thousand Palms and that community's favorite son, was gradually recuperating today and getting back into the groove after an evening of honor Saturday.

Thousand Palms Chamber of Commerce paid high tribute to him because he put the community on the map with his publication and publicity it brings throughout the nation.

MORE THAN 100 persons attended the event, including residents of the area and visiting newspapermen.

Dewey Wallace, president of the Chamber presided and introduced guests and speakers. Ole Nordland of Indio presented a story of Oliver's life since coming to the desert and then Oliver presented his speech—printed in Monday's edition of The Desert Sun.

TABLES were cleverly decorated in desert style by Patricia Dyal. Committee in charge of the event consisted of Mrs. Jack Singler, Mrs. Walter Bovee, Mrs. Hal Cornelius and Mrs. Ivan Barstow.

Special musical numbers were presented by Henry Escher and Elmer Bolton of Indio. Mrs. Edith Reneau of South Gate, a guest, did an impromptu number, "The Sheik of Thousand Palms," dedicated to Oliver.

Cmdr. Shaw in Village on Visit

Commander Frank Shaw and his family from Coronado were guests last week of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Shaw, longtime Village residents, at the latter's home, 275 Mountain View place last week.

Mrs. Shaw was formerly at the hospital here.

Cmdr. Shaw has been assigned to attend the United States Naval War College at Newport, R. I., and will leave in August for the 10-month course.

Cub Scouts to Hold Final Big Meeting Friday

Cub Scouts of Pack 80, Palm Springs will hold their final pack meeting Friday night at Katherine Finchy school at 7:30.

The yearly Cub Scout competition will be staged at this time and awards—ribbons and cups—presented the winners in each event.

Recognition will be given Den Mothers who played a big part in a successful year for Cub Scouting.

Jimmy Morton, leader in Cub Scout activities here, pointed out that the organization started with 70 members and now has 120.

The meeting was originally scheduled for Elks Lodge but has been transferred to the school.

No Bikes for Two Boys for Five Days

Two juveniles are walking for five days this week, instead of using their usual transportation—the bicycle.

The two boys were observed riding on their bicycles Sunday afternoon, with their arms locked together. Witnesses said that several cars almost struck the youths while they were traveling in this unsafe manner.

Officers confiscated the bicycles for five days, and notified the parents of the incident.

"God's Blessing" Topic Saturday of Pastor Smith

"God's Special Blessing For a Special People For a Special Time," will be the subject of Pastor D. Kenneth Smith at 11 a.m. service of Palm Springs Seventh-day Adventist church Saturday.

At 9:30 a.m., members and visitors will study the subject, "The Rise of the Remnant Church," during the Sabbath School Bible study period. There are three adult classes, including the pastor's class, and divisions for the children.

Sunday night at 7:30 at the Bible lecture series conducted in the church, the subject will be the prophecy from the book of Daniel, "When Men and Nations Come Under the Divine Sentence of Doom." Each Wednesday evening, Pastor Smith speaks on the book of Revelation at 7:30.

Another activity, inaugurated this week, is a Red Cross First Aid Training class. This course of nine lessons is being taught by Dr. C. L. Stoneman of Beaumont. The class had its first meeting last Tuesday and will meet tonight at 7.

The church is located on the corner of Riverside drive, South and Camino Real. Each class runs from 7 to 9 p.m.

Charter Group to Meet at Beaumont

Fireside Inn at Beaumont will be the scene this evening of a meeting of the County-Wide Charter committee starting with a dinner at 7 p.m.

Progress of the movement to give Riverside county a charter form of government and discussion of the objectives of the committee are topics on the program.

Fullerton Group Attends Church at Cathedral City

Thirty couples with their children, came from Fullerton, former church of Dr. Graham Hunter, pastor of Cathedral City Community church, to attend a special vesper service at 4 p.m. Sunday.

An afternoon potluck dinner featured the visit.

Next Sunday two similar services, at 9:30 and 11 a.m., will be held at the church with Dr. Hunter preaching at both. Mrs. Clifford Young and J. S. Hillery will lead the special music.

Daily Vacation Bible school plans will be discussed tonight by teachers at the church.

Women's Auxiliary of the church will meet next Thursday, May 5, at the home of Mrs. A. A. Zentmyer, 668 H street. A group from Pilgrim Place in Claremont, a home for retired church workers, will present the program.

REDD HARPER who appears in "Sunday on the Range" to be presented tomorrow night at Foursquare church here.

Church to Show Moving Picture

"Sunday on the Range," one of the most widely discussed Christian movies ever filmed, will be shown tomorrow night at 7:30 at Palm Springs Foursquare church, 600 Vella road. The Rev. Jack Morrow, minister, said.

"Sunday on the Range," features seven songs, all of which have been recorded. The cast is headed by Redd Harper, Tim Spencer and Georgia Lee.

"This great new Christian film can well be described as 'the gospel in song and story with a unique western flavor,'" Rev. Morrow said.

Library Notes

Dear Handy:

How is it anyway that most people think of a librarian as a doddering old crone with one foot in the grave? Or they feel that libraries are especially for children? Or that most people just read fiction? All of these ideas are, of course, misconceptions just like that of the little lady who said, half in jest, and just a little too much in earnest: "I always feel that the librarian is trying to hide the best books from me!"

It is very reassuring and exciting to read the testimony of the New Jersey Library Study Commission. This commission was appointed to investigate the charge that existing library service in the state of New Jersey is inadequate and its findings are quoted in the April Library Journal:

"The public library is a unique American institution. It first started here, and it has had its greatest development in this country, and it is a basic part of the fabric of democratic life as we know it and want it to be."

"Perhaps the word library with its connotation of books is unfortunate. The greatest concern of the library is for people, their hopes, ambitions, needs, artistic and cultural talents, their moral and spiritual aims, their hobbies, their jobs. Libraries are interested in people as citizens, as parents, as workers, as members of a family. Books on the shelf are sterile. The right books in the right hands, at the right time bring hope, kindle ambition, and make for understanding. That is the job for libraries and librarians."

This is of course, an idealistic restatement of the concept of a library; but such an attitude is mirrored in S. N. Behrman's revealing comment on the library of his boyhood which appears in his recent book The

Way, Truth, Life Topic Sunday at St. Paul's Church

Sunday, May 1, the Feast of St. Philip and St. James will be observed at 11 a.m. at St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal church with a celebration of a Choral Eucharist. The Rev. William Blondon, rector, will preach from the Gospel of the day, "The Way, the Truth and the Life."

In addition to the major service of the day, Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8 a.m. and the Family Service will be at 9:30 a.m. in the church. The rector's study class will meet immediately following.

The usual Thursday celebrations of Holy Communion at 10 a.m. will continue through Ascension Day, May 19.

Worcester Account: "A few streets down from Easton's (drug store) was Pleasant (street) where the Worcester Public Library was—an outlet to the universe."

And again in Alfred Kazin's sensitive story of a soul's awakening to the power of language and the meaning of existence "A Walker in the City":

"There was a new public library I liked to walk out to right after supper, when the streets were still full of light. Everything about that library was good—when I entered the library I would walk up and down trembling in front of the shelves. For each new book I took away, there seemed to be ten more of which I was depriving myself. . . . Everything that summer I was sixteen was of equal urgency. . . . So that when, leaving the library for the best of all walks, to Highland Park, I came out on Bushwick Avenue, with its strange, wide, sun-lit spell, a thankfulness seized me. . . ."

It has been estimated that for the price of a carton of cigarettes per person per year the right kind of library service is available—a small price, don't you think, Handy, for 'an outlet to the universe'?

Affectionately,
BETTY

New Gas top burner turns itself off when cooking time is up

Really does sound like magic, doesn't it? Simply put a pan of soup, sauce or whatever on the burner—turn on the blue flame and set the timer. Your food will cook for exactly the length of time you choose. Then—automatically—the burner will turn itself off. (A pleasant-sounding tone calls you to the range.)

ROTARY INSTALLATION

Desert Hot Springs Rotarian will install new officers for the coming year at a dinner party May 19 at Desert Air hotel, Rancho Mirage.

Dr. LeRoy Stewart will be seated as president. The Rev. Lloyd Gibbs will be master of ceremonies. He now resides in San Diego.

Joe Kanya, secretary of the club, urged all Rotarians to obtain their tickets early as reservations will be limited.

RE-UNION IN DHS

Mrs. Frank Spisak of Cleveland, Ohio, enjoyed an unexpected reunion with an old friend in Desert Hot Springs Sunday.

Twenty years ago when Father Cook of the Desert Hot Springs Catholic church, St. Elizabeth church, was ordained in Cleveland, Mrs. Spisak was present.

Last week she arrived in Desert Hot Springs to be the guest of the Ann Ludwig family and last Sunday attended church. She was greatly surprised to find her old friend, Father Cook, in charge and happy to be able to join in the 20th anniversary of his priesthood.

RAMBLINGS AROUND TOWN

Dr. and Mrs. James P. Murray and daughter Eileen, of Fresno, were ten-day guests of the Dr. James Comptons.

Mrs. Beulah Wirsig is a house guest of Mrs. Vera Lockwood. She is stopping off here for a few days before going east to visit her son, editor of the "Woman's Home Companion." During her stay in town, Jolie Shore gave a luncheon in her honor.

Dr. Douglas B. Wilson has given up his practice in Desert Hot Springs, and with his family, has departed for the east.

The Guy Hunts of Long Beach were in town for a two-day visit. They are former home owners here.

The Harry Chesters have returned from a three-day trip to Borrego Springs, where they celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary.

Hans Kellinung has just returned from a two day fishing expedition to San Diego.

Sally Sweet is expecting a visit from another one of her four daughters, Nina Isner, and her husband Omer, and their four children, Shirley, Yvonne, Richard and James, who live in Burbank.

Mrs. Minnie Buetzer, treasurer of the Los Angeles County Music association has been a recent house guest of Grace Harmon. She plans a return visit accompanied by Mrs. Helen Cordell, president of the same organization.

Fred Chisnall, well known desert painter, who calls Rancho Mirage and Palm Springs "home," has been making a brief visit to this side of the wash. He had an over-

Miss Winifred Jones, of Seattle, Washington, flew down to the desert for a two weeks stay at the Sahara motel. With her is her sister, Mrs. W. J. Monohan, also of Seattle.

Harry Chambers of Yorba, California, is a Sahara motel visitor. Dr. Karl von Schilling has departed from "Breezy Acres" Ranch, to return to his Los Angeles home for a few days before he takes off on tour again. It will be two or three months before he will be able to pay the desert another visit.

Desert Nomads to Give Program

The Desert Nomads—Veri, Donna and Kathy Martin—will present "The Call of the Turtles" under auspices of the Desert Museum Saturday at 8 p.m. at Frances S. Stevens school.

"The Martins are well known for the artistry of their photography and the sincerity of their love for the desert," Dr. C. E. Smith, Museum director said, "and their kodachrome slides of the Mohave Desert's Turtle Mountains are well worth seeing."

Dr. Smith also called attention to cancellation of Saturday's planned field trip to the Desert Sanctuary and said that a substitute trip was being considered. He advised members to check with the Museum.

HOTTEST-SELLING BUICK IN HISTORY

No wonder you see so many '55 Buicks on the highways—they're rolling up bigger sales than ever before in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three" of America's best sellers.

UNLESS we miss our guess, a lot of surprised people are going to do some new back-of-an-envelope arithmetic when they see the Buick price shown here.

Because we know that many folks still don't realize how little a Buick really costs—that the new transportation charges to the West have lowered the price even more—and that the dollar difference between this big Buick SPECIAL and the leading smaller cars has now virtually disappeared.

Buick Sales Are Soaring As Never Before

But more and more of them are finding it out. And that's a major reason why Buick production and Buick sales are soaring to all-time highs today—and why Buick again is outselling all other cars, except two of the well-known smaller cars.

Big reason, too, for this soaring popularity is Buick's full line of automobiles, giving you a choice in any price class—the rock-bottom-priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the supremely spacious SUPER, and the custom-built ROADMASTER.

But above all, more and more people are discovering that the price you pay for a Buick buys more sheer automobile than the same money buys elsewhere.

More advanced styling, more deep-down comfort, more pure power thrill, more ride steadiness and handling ease and solidity of structure.

More spectacular performance, too, from the modest extra cost of Buick's automatic transmission.

For here you get Variable Pitch Dynaflo†—the new wonder drive born of modern aeronautics to give you instant full-power getaway and acceleration when needed—and far better gas mileage when cruising.

Why not come see us this week, for sure? We'll be happy to have you test-pilot a new Buick, just for the sheer thrill of it—and show you quite clearly that if you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick.

†Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other series.

Thrill of the year is Buick

Carnation Corner

Today I want to give credit where credit is due for Carnation MV Milk! Nature gets the most credit for putting so much good butterfat, protein and minerals in Carnation Milk, so our children can grow up strong and healthy. I also thank Carnation for adding lots of Vitamins A, B₁, C and D to make MV Milk the "multi-vitamin" milk it is. And for homogenizing it so wonderfully that you always taste its cream-in-every drop goodness. And for getting it to our homes and markets so fresh!

Most of us are on food budgets these days. That's why it's so wise to remember that Carnation MV Milk is still one of our best food bargains. It's Nature's most perfect food, made even better by Carnation!

IRONING TRICKS

1. When suede shoes become spotted with water, brush thoroughly and hold steam iron just over shoes—not touching them. Velvet, corduroy and other pile fabrics can be freshened this way, too.

2. To perk up a nylon or orlon sweater, hold steam iron 1/2 inch from sweater and move slowly over entire area. The steam penetrates the yarn to give the sweater a fresh new look.

3. Whiz through ironing with lots more energy by enjoying a glass or two of Carnation MV Milk!

A Cook's Tour of Cookies

People all over the world like cookies. The French make the fanciest looking ones. German cookies are the spiciest. Italians usually make them with almonds and a base of anise oil. English cookies are generally large and bland-tasting. Swedish cookies are famous for their feathery texture. Russians like fried cookies! My family likes all kinds of cookies—just so I serve them with cold Carnation Milk!

How to be a "Doll" at 84

I know a dear little lady who just celebrated her eighty-fourth birthday. She's just as cute and peppy as she can be. All the men are crazy about her. She tells me that one of her good-health secrets is drinking at least 3 glasses of Carnation MV Milk a day.

We never outgrow our need for milk, you know...or our capacity to enjoy it. So do drink a lot of milk, yourself—and get your husband to join you!

INTERNATIONAL DIET — In his address to newspapermen attending the Associated Press meeting in New York this week President Eisenhower called upon the American people to face re-occurring crises in international affairs with intelligence and courage. While he recognizes the great danger in these crises, the President also sees in them a challenge that can be met to the lasting good of our country and the world.

The great dangers in this re-occurring diet of world crises run to two extremes which must be overcome to prevent disaster. President Eisenhower described them this way:

"A crisis may be fatal when, by it, unstable men are stampeded into headlong panic. Then — bereft of common sense and judgment — they hastily resort to armed force in the hope of crushing a threatening foe . . ."

"A crisis may likewise be deadly when inert men — unsure of themselves and their cause — are smothered by it in despair. Then, grasping at an straw of appeasement, they sell a thousand tomorrows for the pottage of a brief escape from reality."

The President will not be stampeded or lulled into letting this nation follow either of these courses. He will not, as some people fear, allow this nation to be plunged into war through panic in some crisis. Neither will he consent to appeasement, as some people think, only to face a more serious crisis later on. Our people should take encouragement from the intelligent and hopeful way which our chief executive faces a situation fraught with danger; and we should heed his appeal to the American people. We must not be guilty he says of these failures:

failure to seek out and face the facts courageously, failure to make required sacrifices for the common good; failure to look beyond our selfish interests of the moment; failure to seek long-term betterment for all our citizens."

This admonition is well worth considering by everyone is wondering what he or she can do to help.

CURBS ON THE NEWS — At another gathering of newspaper men last week the editors expressed concern over increasing restraints imposed by governmental departments on news of their activities. The American Society of Newspaper Editors opened a new campaign against news suppression. They pointed to the recent creation by Secretary of Commerce Weeks of an Office of Strategic Information to establish "advisory" restraints on the publication of non-secret data which might, in OSI's opinion, help a potential enemy. They were equally concerned with an order by Defense Secretary Wilson imposing limits on speeches, statements and press releases by military officers and defense personnel.

The editors could see such a policy carried to the point where only information of no possible use to any potential enemy would be released; in which event the American people would not have the foundation of truth on which to judge their government. Herein lies another danger. The most characteristic difference between a dictatorship and a democracy is freedom of information. It is the duty of the newspaper profession to defend for the people their right to know what their government is doing. It is the withholding of non-secret data that concerns the editors.

The Editors Society is likewise disturbed over the increasing number of closed door sessions of Congressional committees. They pointed out that in 1954 41% of the committee sessions were barred against the press and public as against 34% in 1953.

In guarding the freedom of the press, newspapers are not pursuing a selfish interest but looking out for one of the most important rights guaranteed under the Constitution; your right to know.

TRY AND STOP ME

By Bennett Cerf

THE CLUB BORE droned on: "I thought I was drowning for sure; I was going down for the third time, mind you. Suddenly my whole life passed before my eyes in sharp, clearly delineated pictures."

"Hmmp," snorted an alert listener from the depth of his leather chair. "I don't suppose one of those sharp pictures was one of me lending you that ten-spot back in 1932?"

The shapely Cole girl flunked her automobile driving test for the third time running, and burst into tears. "Cheer up," counseled the state examiner. "You can try again next year."

"But how am I going to get back and forth from LaGuardia in the meantime?" demanded Miss Cole. "I'm a pilot."

Asked for the feminine of bachelor, a wise lad in a Bronxville school answered, "Lady in waiting."

A shrewd restaurateur in Milwaukee has plastered a huge sign on his window proclaiming, "T-bone, 25c!" When you get close enough to read the small print, however, you note this reservation: "With meat, $4."

"And so, ladies and gentlemen," concluded the perspiring candidate, "I am willing to stand on my record."

"No wonder," whispered a lady in the second row. "He's afraid that if he steps off it, somebody may read it."

CHINESE FIRE CRACKERS

PHILLIPS

I Rise to Remark

Recent recognition of the Salk vaccine and the feeling generally that this is the greatest advance to date in the fight against polio, should not dim a longer and much more patient fight which is also showing increasing signs of victory.

This is the campaign against tuberculosis. Most Americans probably think of it once a year when the Christmas seals arrive and we send the annual contribution, adding a little to the expected dollar for the sheet of seals. This is only the opportunity to support a good cause; the campaign itself goes on every day.

Last year, in Riverside county alone, 19,975 free x-ray examinations were provided by the county Tuberculosis Association. 905 of these were made in my home town of Banning. I do not have the figures before me for Imperial county. This is without question one of the most important factors in the continuing campaign; it discovers the enemy before he has time to gather his forces. The infection rate is high, especially in our district, because of border problems, but important gains are being made.

THE PERIOD from May 2nd to May 13th has apparently been designated this year for an intensive effort along these lines. I see one "project" (a familiar word here in Washington)—to offer this X-ray service conveniently to all members of the Congress—being sponsored jointly by the local associations and agencies. It is a worthwhile objective and everyone should cooperate.

It may surprise you and perhaps amuse you, to have me say that my knowledge of this subject comes, in part at least, from my committee work. Why? Because year after year the demands upon us for money for the TB hospitals under the Veterans Administration decrease rather than increase, as do the other categories. We haven't won the war, but at least we're across the beach and moving towards the final objective. Now is the time for personal cooperation and support.

I HAD INTENDED to write about the "United Nations Expanded Program of Technical Assistance." I put it in quotes, and emphasize the word "expanded," because that is the key to the present confusion on this subject which manifests itself in letters and inquiries to various members of Congress asking why these members voted against an additional $4 million to this program in a supplemental bill on March 18th. Most of the good ladies who write the letters have apparently been told by the Washington offices of the national associations or leagues to which they belong that this would have denied money for the World Health Organization, the International Labor Organization or UNESCO.

This is simply the old bureaucratic game. This Expanded program, wrongly designated in toto as the "technical assistance program," comprises 7 separate programs three of which have to do with what we recognize as technical assistance programs, along the lines of FAO and the Point-4 programs. We now have 4, repeat 4, such duplicating programs and the Congress, a year ago, specifically denied the right to further commitments until the money had been authorized and appropriated by the Congress.

The request for additional funds was for $4 million. The hearings showed that the possible need in the remaining 3 months was $2.2 million. The unexpended balance in the funds at the moment was $6.5 million. The discussion was en-

Automobile Collision Injuries

We are about to enter the time of year when considerable interest is generated in one of the most serious problems of our nation—automobile accidents. Not that they are not always with us, but with the coming of spring throughout a vast portion of our country the highways were again opened. Heavier traffic is on the move.

Dr. Robert G. Livingstone, writing in "Surgery" recently, reported on a series of some 1475 persons injured in automobile collisions. The main cause of injury in automobile accidents is the uncontrolled motion of the occupant in relation to that of a car—in other words, inertia. In head-on collisions, the individual is thrown forward at approximately the speed of the automobile at the instant preceding the accident. This results in an impact against the steering wheel, the windshield or the dashboard.

In addition, the impact of the collision depending upon the speed and the immovable body which the car may meet, or a movable body coming in the other direction, may prove sufficient for the heavier part of the car, the motor, the steering wheel, etc., to be pushed back upon the victim driver or companion in the front seat. The rate of deceleration under such circumstances may be many times that of the acceleration of gravity. Strains or sprains may result from associated twisting or wrenching.

With abrupt acceleration, as with collisions from the rear, the reverse is true. The auto is thrust forward beneath the occupant who is thrown backward. A whiplash injury results when the head and neck are snapped backward. This snapped neck is not an uncommon injury and may result in permanent damage to the cervical vertebrae in the neck, or to the nerves which have exit at this level.

Various measures have been taken to reduce the duplicating programs, along the Point-4 lines. If it is suggested that additional money be denied some duplicating programs, then word is given out that the other programs are to be curtailed, hence the letters!

suggested to provide protection against the effects of acceleration. A well-known example is the seat belt which is securely anchored to the frame of the automobile and holds the occupant firmly and squarely in the seat. It is a relatively cheap device and should soon become required by the several states. It thus would become standard equipment.

The adoption of other protective measures would require some change in automobile design and construction. A list of some of these improvements might be given here:

1. Elimination of all sharp edges and projections.
2. Adoption of push-button controls and recessed fittings.
3. Generous use of padding throughout the car.
4. Use of plastic or pop-out windshields.
5. Installation of a flexible joint in the steering column, or the adoption of aircraft-type levers instead of a steering wheel.
6. Installation of non-rigid dashboards.
7. Elevation of the backs of the seats to support the head and neck.
8. Installation of periscope rear view mirrors.
9. The use of body construction which will deflect or absorb the force of impact.
10. Installation of shock absorbing bumpers.

Among the 1475 persons in automobile collisions, two-thirds of the injuries were caused by impact or crushing, usually involving the head, arms, shoulders or legs. The remainder were the result of whiplash wrenching or protective rotation, and commonly affected the neck, arms, shoulders or back.

The main source of the impact injuries was through the side of the automobile. Injuries of the head and neck, arms and shoulders, or back, while the passenger usually sustained injuries of the head and neck, arms and shoulders, legs or pelvis.

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

"We're glad to have you with us." That's what they used to say. But now they're getting tougher. You overpark, you pay.

Looks like the days of those pink courtesy slips which you found under your windshield wiper are gone. Orders have gone forth to be polite as in the past, but more firm. Heretofore, police have been rather lenient with over-parkers, especially if they were from out of town. Only the more flagrant cases were really tolled. Under the new plan of more strict enforcement of all traffic laws, over-parking is going to cost. No favors.

ON THE SUBJECT of traffic there is need for a yellow pedestrian stop sign in that lane between the two parking lots in the 100 north block on Indian avenue. The one that connects the Bank of America lot and the other on the east side of the street. It's a painted pedestrian lane but the autoists merrily barrel through it and that's where you know what the expression: "The quick and the dead" really means. For if you are not the former, you may be the latter. Not only do drivers bowl through there but they give you a scowl if you're in the walk . . . Referring back to parking, I saw a neat job Saturday night. All of the parking lots were full and all of the curb spots, even the yellow zones. So the driver of a long, sleek job parked on the sidewalk just north of the Printery in such a manner as to block the sidewalk and the exit from the Andreas and Indian lot, locked his car and went over town. There was a lot of backing as motorists planning to leave had to reverse it back to Andreas to get out. Bet the ears of the owners of that car burned!

LAST SATURDAY night Thousand Palms honored Harry Oliver and the publisher of the Desert Rat Scrap Book and he gave the speech he had been carefully preparing ever since he heard about the event. But he had to make one last-minute revision. When he wrote that speech, Sin, his dog, had just been offsping. And among other things Oliver said was that he was happy, he had enough to feed his dog, his tortoise, pet crow, road-runners and his "five cats." But Sin done him wrong. By the time he was ready to present his masterpiece there were four more kittens and he had to quickly change it to "my nine cats." . . . Just like a cat!

SPEAKING OF CATS reminds me of dogs. Basil Brewer, publisher of the New Bedford Mass. Standard-Times tells a dog story which is the best I've heard in many years. Seems there was a man who bought himself a pedigreed retriever and spent long hours training him. Could hardly wait the opening of duck season. Finally it dawned and he took his prize puppy to the duck blind. Soon he bagged a pair. "Now comes it," he thought, "I'll see how good this dog is. Go get 'em," he said. The dog trotted out—across the top of the water without even getting his paws wet, picked up the ducks and brought them back. The man wiped his eyes, picked up his flask and heaved it into the lake. Thought he had had enough. Bagged two more ducks, same thing. The dog danced over the top of the water, retrieved the ducks and came back. Feet dry.

THE REST of that day and night the man didn't take a drink. He was going to be sure the next morning. The next day he was bang, two ducks and again the dog walked the top of the lake, and brought them in, bone dry. (That is, the dog.) Now the owner believed what he saw. "Wait until I show this to my pal Bill," he exulted. Next morning he and Bill were in the blind. Two ducks shot. The dog repeated his water walking. The owner awaited Bill's comment. There was none. The next time they knocked over a brace of ducks and the dog did no longer contain himself. "Bill," he shouted, "what do you think of that marvelous dog?" Bill just said "Humpf," he's not much of a dog. Can't swim."

BILL FADDEN tells of a woman who came in to him when he used to conduct his optometrist shop, with a pair of glasses with imitation gold rims. The imitation had worn off in spots. "Mr. Fadden," she asked, "could you retarnish these glasses for me?" . . . Village woman tells me of the nicest motorcop she met the other day. He flagged her down on Highway 111 for going a mite too fast. When she explained that she didn't usually drive that fast but that the combination of a strong tail wind and the down grade caught her unawares. The officer accepted her explanation, admonished her not to do it again and then said: "Well, this one is on the house. But be careful next time."

THEY TELL ME that at a certain school the children were asked to bring donations for the Salvation Army. One youngster evidently believed in playing it fair for all. He asked whether sometime they could bring donations for the Salvation Navy.

The Voice of Broadway

By Dorothy Kilgallen

NICK EDEN, attractive son of Britain's new prime minister, is dating Kay Margold, a pretty New Yorker, in London . . . Diana Lynn has seen Gore Vidal every day since she met him during the rehearsals for "Stage Door" . . . Errol Flynn has grown tired of being Such a Good Boy. So his recent yacht parties have been in the old Flynn tradition, complete with gay scenes of comely guests being dunked into the briny with all their finery on.

After a long series of debates, Jon Hall and Frances Langford finally have agreed to divorce settlement terms, so the case will go to court in the very near future. He'll marry showgirl Linda Danson as soon as it's legally possible. The Broadway flash of the year: Helen Hayes, the First Lady of the Theater, is taking acting lessons! (The honored coach is Constance Collier.)

Spring is here all right. The Maharajah of Baroda arrived at Idlewild at midnight the other night, and by 2 a.m. was sitting under Matt Dennis's piano at the Chi Chi with model Bonnie Cole.

At the Patio, Suzanne Dadolle (of Clark Gable fame) made it easier for society's Dick Cowell to swoon as the violins swooped by . . . And Charlie Barnett's one-time sweetheart, singer Ellie Russell, has found herself a new bandleader: Gene Williams.

Advance reports on Marjorie Steele's MGM screen test are glowing. They say she has the "fresh" appeal that made Grace Kelly and Audrey Hepburn such sudden successes . . . Lew Parker of "Ankles Aweigh" never gets very far from Betty George, the curvy singer in the same show . . . Sign on the window of a recently-raided West 49th Street grimmil: "Customers Wanted. No Experience Necessary."

There'll be a flood of pilot films on TV during the hot months. So many of the network laddies figure anything goes during the hot months . . . Mike Todd made a quick trip to Mexico, so don't be surprised if there's a tequila and tamale tinge to the next Todd-AO announcement. Sudden reaction while watching Gary Cooper and wife Rocky lunching at the Colony: After all these years of married life, they've grown to look alike.

This column reported that Arthur Godfrey had bawled out his entire company after a recent video screening. Next day Godfrey took to the radio microphone and denied that such a thing had occurred. He told his audience I had made up the story because I didn't have anything else to write about. Why, shucks, said the Old Redhead, he couldn't even find any of the kids after a program; they always scooted out of the studio before the show was off the air.

Following morning, he managed to find nine of them after the program was over—and summarily fired them. As soon as the axe fell and the news was on the front pages, various members of the Godfrey "gang" gave reporters a fill-in on the upheavals preceding the oustings—confirming this column's original item, with trimmings. Quiz Question: Why did he bother denying it?

Sammy Davis Jr.'s intimates say the girl he really cares for is a pretty Manhattan secretary named Billie Harris. The son of a famed South of the Border politician, almost reduced a hansom cab to cinders the other evening in New York. As the cab jogged around Central Park, the young Senator's date complained she was cold, so he put a cigarette lighter to a newspaper to warm her up.

Result was a burnt minicoot, a scorched carriage and a singed horse's tail. A check settled it all quietly . . . Mexico City socialites are still gabbling about the flamenco party Carmen Amaya gave in honor of Fernanda Montiel. It lasted 24 hours.

Any rumors about Jerry Lester reuniting professionally with Dagmar are pure fantasy. In fact, if you want to see the human equivalent of an H-bomb explosion, ask Jerry if it's a possibility . . . Kay Winsor was asked if she'd had any nibbles on her fabulous co-op apartment, which is for sale. She replied: "No, only gasps."

Marion Colby, starred on the 2½ hour-a-day TV show, "Entertainment," tells chums she wouldn't dream of settling her divorce suit out of court. Insists she wants everything—but everything—to be aired.

The newspapers were full of pictures of the happy sweepstakes winners, but the police believe more counterfeit tickets were sold this year than ever before.

Doodles

By ROGER PRICE

"SHREWD STRAWBERRY GETTING OUT OF A JAM"

If you study the title to this Doodle awhile you'll realize that it contains a tiny pun. Now many people think they are too eggheaded to appreciate puns but, personally, I consider them very ingenious. My favorite is the one about the noisy chess kibitzers who were ordered out of a hotel lobby where a chess match was being held. When asked why he did it, the hotel manager replied, "I was just pulling my chess nuts out of the fover!" If you think that's crazy you never heard the one about the two Dutch boys named Hans and Wilhelm who were walking along a canal with their mother. Wilhelm suddenly pushed her into the water and said to his brother: "Look, Hans—no maw!" So?

You can't hardly get good spells or incantations no more... and even a sound, workable hex is hard to find. But there's one place where you can still buy magic, the sort of enchantment that burnishes even the grays, dulls day with a sudden gleam of excitement and anticipation.

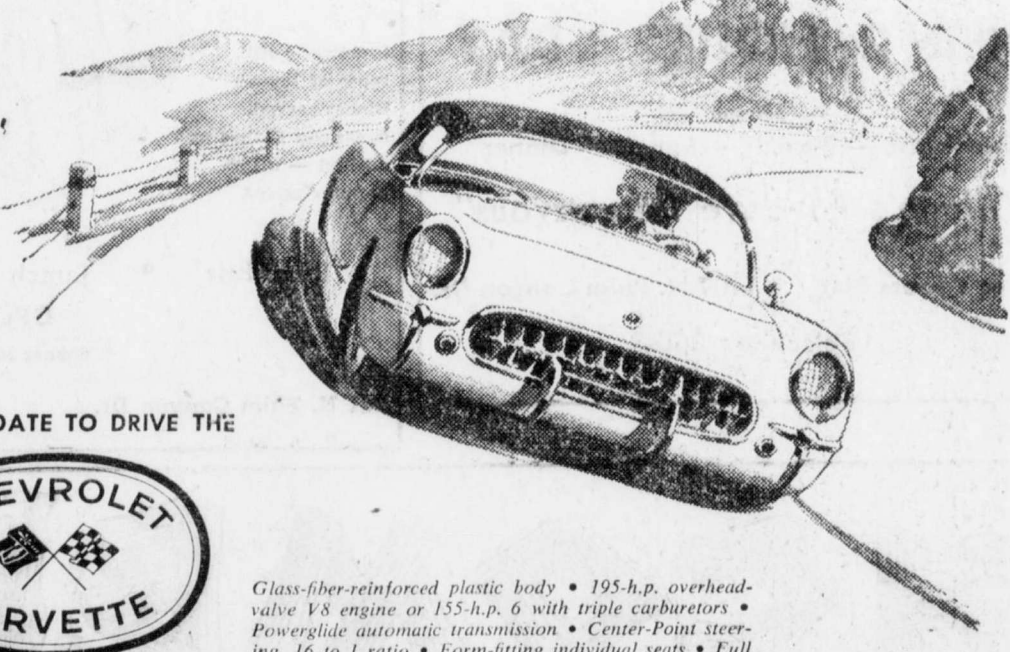

You'll begin to believe this first time you settle yourself deep in the cockpit of a Corvette sports car, whether it is powered by the husky 155-h.p. "Blue-Flame" 6 or the chain lightning of the new 195-h.p. V8. And you'll know it for sure before you have driven one block.

For a Corvette feels—and moves—like no car you have ever known. Slip into the swirl of traffic and an invisible cloak of security seems to fall about you—you could thread a needle with this precise 16 to 1 steering... the whiplash acceleration snatches you away from trouble as fast as your reflexes can say "Go!"... massive brakes clamp down like a gigantic magnet.

But the real spell doesn't begin until you're slowing down the open highway, slicing through the wickedest curves as though on invisible rails, exulting in the incredible roadability that seems to sink steel talons into the pavement and cling, cling, cling!

Then, snug against the silken rush of wind over the arc of the windshield, cradled deep in the Corvette's bucket seat, you will find that enchantment still lives, that magic is on sale at our Chevrolet showroom... and you can test this any day!

CLUB INSTALLATION

Cathedral City Woman's club held a luncheon meeting last Wednesday at Desert Air hotel to install officers for the 1955-56 season. A symbolic ceremony was given by Mrs. Cyria Henderson, installing officer, using as her theme "A Year's Cruise on the Good Ship Cathedral City Woman's Club." As each officer was installed the position was likened to a corresponding rank of a ship officer. The officers were installed in the following order: Mrs. Leah Lewis, as parliamentary officer, whose position is symbolic of the helmsman on a cruiser, Mrs. Bessie Kelley, auditor, the chief petty officer, Mrs. Iva Mhoon, treasurer, filling the post a purser does aboard ship, Mrs. Wilma Gordon as corresponding secretary fills the same station as does the radio officer aboard ship. Mrs. Alphonse Harrison, as recording secretary keeps the "log" of the club as does the quartermaster. Mrs. Delores Cordes, as second vice president, is the second mate on the club's voyage. Mrs. Laura Madison as first vice president is second in command, ready to take over the bridge in the absence of the captain. Mrs. Edna Cobb, president or captain of the Good Ship Cathedral City Woman's Club in whose guiding hands the ship sails through the club year, was the last officer to be installed, with Mrs. Henderson presenting her with the badge of her office, the president's pin. Mrs. Wilma Gordon, program chairman, introduced "Chuck" Travis, pianist, who entertained with a fifteen-minute program following the luncheon. A bouquet of red carnations and white stocks was the centerpiece on the head table, and was presented to the new president following the meeting.

FROM KOREA

The Rev. Graham C. Hunter, pastor of Community church, who was a classmate at Union Seminary, Princeton, with Syngman Rhee, president of the Republic of Korea, sent him birthday congratulations this month, and yesterday received the following reply: "My dear Reverend Hunter: I was so very pleased to hear from you on the occasion of my eightieth birthday and to know that those days at the Union Seminary are recalled by you. I remember well those busy times and savor in my memory the happy associations and interests we all shared. I am glad to know that with Mrs. Hunter you are still in the mission field and are very happy in such a useful work. My warmest good wishes go out to you both, and may God be with you always. Yours sincerely, (signed) Syngman Rhee."

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Roberta Sherrill entertained seven of her friends with a party on her ninth birthday Saturday afternoon. The highlight of the afternoon was a scavenger hunt with three teams of two participants each competing for prizes given to the team returning with the highest number of items. Only one item could be obtained from each house, and any team getting more than one article from the same place had to forfeit it, so much scurrying around town was necessary in order to be the first to get back with a full "bag" and win the prizes. A beautifully decorated birthday cake was the centerpiece of the refreshment table with ice cream and candy ready for the "scavengers" on their return. Guests enjoying Roberta's hospitality were Linda and Jeanette Lake, Jackie Picard, Priscilla Allison, Vicki Palmer, Sally Gorges, and Judy Jorgensen.

CUB SCOUT AWARDS

Cub Scout Pack 81 held a pack meeting at the school cafeteria Friday evening. The meeting opened with a colorful flag ceremony conducted by Lion Cubs, followed by songs by Den 4. Melvin Miller of the state division of forestry spoke on fire prevention and showed two films on California wild life and natural resources. Cubmaster Mike Gordon welcomed new registrations John Cordes, Jerry Foss and Donald Schreder. Awards were presented as follows: Arthur Johnson, Lion badge and pin, gold arrow and silver arrow; David Gordon, Lion badge and pin, gold arrow; Jimmy Pate, Lion badge and pin; John Aitchison, Wolf badge and pin and gold arrow; Howard Deason, Lion badge and pin, gold arrow; David Zappe, Wolf badge and pin, gold arrow; Michael Merrill, Bear badge and pin; Wayne Walker, Wolf badge and pin, gold arrow; two silver arrows; Chris Anderson, Wolf badge and pin, gold and silver arrows; Joe Spalliero, Wolf badge and pin, gold and silver arrows; Dick Miller, Bear badge and pin, Lion badge and pin, gold arrow, silver arrow; David Zimmerman, Bear badge and pin and gold arrow. Special awards of a Cub Scout plaque were given to John Aitchison and Dick Miller for extra effort.

CATHEDRAL CITY NOTES

Faye E. Horton, whose wife Mildred died April 15, left Tuesday with his son Carroll for an indefinite stay in Lillian, Virginia, home of Carroll Horton. Mrs. Horton prior to her death had made her home for the past seven years in Cathedral City, had been a member of the Woman's club, and was active in the Community church.

Girl Scout Troop 21 from the seventh and eighth grades entertained Troop 6, fifth grade girls at a party in the Scout House Wednesday night. The girls have been working for their star badges and were entertained by Mrs. Graham Hunter with a factual talk on the stars, planets and constellations, holding the meeting out of doors, pointing out the heavenly bodies as she named them. PALM DESERT

By LOU KUEHNER

HI-LITERS PRESENT PLAY

On May 7, the Hi-Liters plan to present their production of "The Castle of Mr. Simpson", the group's first dramatic endeavor in the form of a comedy of the problems facing a father of three very interesting young daughters.

The place of showing has not yet been determined. Cast in the play are Pat Ward as Mrs. Simpson, Richard Crow as Mr. Simpson, Pat Quinn as Anabelle, Carol Yates as Lili, Mona Heisler as Irene, Denny Gabelle as Tommy, Gary Tucker as Charles, and Steve Kallejian as the Stranger. The entire production is being staged, directed and publicized by the members of the youth group.

LIBRARY BOARD MEETING

Palm Desert Library board held their last monthly meeting at a luncheon at the Sun Tiki Restaurant Tuesday. Present were Dr. Ruge, chairman, Randall Henderson, representing Rotary; Mrs. Bob Ellsworth, Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. Bert Cavanaugh, Desert Guild; Mrs. Al Hollenbeck, Business and Professional Women's club; and Mrs. Bob Keedy, Parent Teachers Association.

OPEN HOUSE

Colorful displays and exhibits were the highlight of the Open House presented at Palm Desert school Wednesday. Each room displayed for their parents' inspection their handiwork. All the teaching staff was on hand to meet the parents.

PALM DESERT BRIEFS

Dinner and cocktail party was held at the Shadow Mountain club in honor of Vini Rurac and his wife, Magda Monday. Cliff Henderson was one of the many to express the club's appreciation to Vini and Magda for the excellent job they are doing at the club. Henderson also spoke of the possibilities for growth along tennis lines at the club becoming a reality in a very short time. Guests present included Messrs. and Mmes. Monte Wenck, Jerry Malone, Clarence Bosworth, Blocher, Don Neilson, Gene Roberts, Stan Ring, Milton Page, Bob Owens and Messrs. Cliff Henderson, Jim Blocher and Joe Malone. . . . Everyone has noticed the face-lifting that Palm Desert has been undergoing. Such landscaping improvements as those in front of the Post Office, by the Sun Lodge Colony and on various street corners, all help to make Palm Desert one of the most beautiful of Desert spots. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Cole Connolly of Palm Springs hosted a dinner party at the Shadow Mountain club for Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ross of San Diego. It was in celebration of Ross' 87th birthday. Also present were Captain and Mrs. Harold J. Bellingham from Palm Springs. . . . Willie Alexander of the Palm Desert Beauty Shoppe had as her guests for the week, her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Belieu from Fresno. . . . Mrs. Kay Olesen entertained her bridge club from Indio last week. . . . Here as the WUNDERBAR is the descriptive adjective applied to everything Palm Springs by these two visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Dieter Scholtz of Bachnang, Germany. They left Tuesday after a short stay with the Stan Rosins at El Encanto. The two couples met last Summer when the Rosins were abroad. Mr. Scholtz, who is in the leather tanning business, is in the United States studying the methods used in this country.

was also a weekend guest of the Tacketts.

Mrs. Andrew Cruminy of Santa Cruz who arrived on Sunday is here now for a week's visit with her niece Mrs. Tackett.

Mrs. Clifford Heinz from Pittsburgh, Mrs. H. D. McGeachie and Miss Elizabeth McIninch from Altadena are spending a few days together at the Desert Inn.

Kempers Host Buffet Reception

In a setting reminiscent of Hawaii, with its palm trees, greenward and mountains, Mr. and Mrs. James Kemper were hosts at a cocktail-buffet reception at the Committee of Twenty Five Club on Monday evening.

Guests of honor, receiving with the Kempers, were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Leonard of Chicago and R. Crosby Kemper of Kansas City. The two men are bankers who were here to attend the Reserve City Bankers convention.

Tables and dance floor were set up on the lawn back of the clubhouse where the guests enjoyed a Santos-catered buffet and danced to the music of an orchestra. Accordion music by Harold Tonne also added to the entertainment.

Among the many guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Robert E. Strauss (he is president of the American National Bank in Chicago and a cousin of the Maurice Horners), Walter Braunschweiger, Fred Ingram, P. A. Staley, Bill Bannerman, George Roberson, Frank Bennett, Jack French, Burnham Bigelow, Henry Dollard, W. B. Malouf, Fred Karlen, F. C. Dougherty, Tom Fleming, Charles Becker, L. L. Oakes, Maurice Horner, George Wheeler, Gordon Prentice, Bill Crawford, Mrs. Noble Banks, Misses Marjorie Pohl and Beth Scott and Mr. Frank Bogert.

Last Buffet
The last Sunday night buffet and dinner dance of the Racquet Club will take place this Sunday night, Manager Sherman Hull announced this week. The Sunday night buffets are always popular and have drawn crowds all season.

Dining at the Palm Springs
Ranch Club the other evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Grouya. He is the noted songwriter, perhaps best known for his "Flamingo."

Specifications for a dream house: A lot in Palm Springs... with a view of mountains and desert... and an architect who would list those two items first for his own home... Palm trees and a pool in a walled garden with oleanders and bougainvillea... and roses blooming the way they are now... A house like the Spaniards built... with thick walls and tiled roof... and a judicious combination of sliding glass walls that allow the outdoor living that is the Palm Springs way of life... A fireplace for cool desert nights... Spacious rooms for gracious living... and to gather your friends about you... for informal evenings of conversation... Surround it all with sunny days and starlit nights... and it becomes the kind of place you would leave reluctantly... and hurry back to...

This is the kind of dreaming that goes on this time of year... as April merges into May... and the gay social season is just past its peak... You listen to Joan Bering enthusing about her plans for her first house above Thunderbird... Marcia Barrett thrilled with her new house that is nearing completion in Deep Well Estates... and Melba Bennett who won't leave until re-modeling of their new house is completed... So many new homes... So many lucky people to be living in Palm Springs...

All Western Style Show Friday Night

Reservations are pouring in this week for the Western costume dinner dance and style show to be staged at the Palm Springs Ranch Club tomorrow night.

Besides a gay evening, the party has special appeal as it is a benefit arranged by Noel Clarke to raise funds to buy equipment for Desert Hospital. A number of celebrities are expected to be special guests, including Allan Jones, the singing star who is currently appearing at the Mocambo, and his screen star wife, Irene Hervey. Among other notables planning to attend are Vera-Ellen and her husband Vic Rothschild, Alexis Smith, Jane Wyman, Ginny Simms, Donald O'Connor, Jon Hall, Venuta Benay.

Western fashions from Rasmussen and squaw dresses from Alpha shops will be modeled by local models, with Frank Bogert doing the commenting. There will be music and dancing and a fun evening.

MARRIED Tuesday in West Los Angeles were Jean Elizabeth Cannon and Austin Everett Joscelyn Jr.

Miss Cannon Married at St. Paul's

Wedding vows were recited Tuesday by Jean Elizabeth Cannon, daughter of the William Dean Cannons of West Los Angeles and Palm Springs, and Austin Everett Joscelyn Jr. The ceremony took place in the chapel of St. Paul the Apostle Church in West Los Angeles with Father Mahoney officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a Cahill gown of white taffeta with lace applique. A crown of lace held up her fingertip veil and she carried a prayer book with orchids, lily of the valley and stephanotis.

Miss Ann Joscelyn, sister of the bridegroom, acted as bridesmaid and Robert Williams of Los Angeles was best man.

The bride is a graduate of Marymount; he graduated from Saint Monicas, and both attended the University of Arizona.

A wedding reception was held at the Beverly Hills hotel following the ceremony.

The newlyweds are motoring up the coast and will make their home in Seattle.

MEMORIES of last year's luau are revived as Desert Air hotel gets ready to stage its big annual luau on the evening of May 6. Owner Hank Gogerty, on right, is shown as he greeted two guests at last year's successful affair. They are Opera Star and Village home owner Lily Pons and Harold Hicks.

Brunch Honors Mrs. Blackstone

When Mrs. John Williams gathered members of the board of the Women's Circle of the Community Church at her home at 610 Via Monte Vista for Tuesday brunch, it was to compliment Mrs. James Blackstone, who is going abroad this summer.

The guest of honor received a nylon robe and slippers and a travel book from the assembled guests.

Dr. and Mrs. Blackstone and their daughter Bonnie leave here on May 23 and will be abroad for about six weeks. With them will go their future daughter-in-law Miss Kathryn Burkhardt of San Jose, whose betrothal to Pvt. James Harry Blackstone III was announced last fall. Pvt. Blackstone is now stationed in Orleans, France and the young couple will be married in the American Church in Paris on June 24.

Guests at the brunch were: Mmes. William Castle, William Stevenson, Don McPherson, Harry Yesley, Claude Yerkes, Frank Little, Gordon Nicholson, Howard Jay, Stanley Sarnecki, and Miss June Jungmeyer. The next meeting of the Women's Circle will be a picnic on May 10.

Cocktail Party to be Benefit

Invitations have gone out for a cocktail party that will be held May 7, from 6 to 9 at the Joe Pawling home at 231 Lilliana drive. Entertainment will include songs by Johnny and Tani Boyle.

The party will be a benefit with donations going to buy equipment and wall the play yard at St. Theresa School.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Pawling will be Mmes. Ellsworth Vines, Andrew Fitzmorris, Marjorie Morin, Eddie Myerson, George Ritter, Robert Clark, Joe Glaston and Bill Kenaston.

Open House at School Tonight

Parents, relatives and friends have been invited to attend the open house at Katherine Finchy School this evening in observance of Public School Week. Open house will be from 7 to 8:15 p.m.

At 8:15 the Parent-Teacher Group will meet to act on the bylaws and appoint a nominating committee.

The annual Parent-Teacher Group food sale will be held in the school cafeteria during the open house.

LUAU TIME was a happy time at Thunderbird Saturday night when a capacity crowd gathered for the annual luau and enjoyed a terrific stage show. Pictured on left, at the luau table is Mrs. Ralph Singer with Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Obergefel. Above are two of the costumed merrymakers, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Ambrose of LaJolla.

Friends Gather to Fete Birthday of Mrs. Taylor

The Tennis Club was decked out in festive array and rang with gay laughter Friday night as good friends met to celebrate the birthday of their hostess Mrs. Sam Taylor. The charming Mrs. Taylor greeted her guests in a white printed gown by Marusia.

Cocktails were served in the Venetian Room and dinner dancing in the main dining room went on into the wee small hours. Guests were seated at tables for six, lighted by pink candles, with rings of fresh Spring flowers. The French flower cart at the entrance was literally loaded down with fragrant roses of every hue.

Among the Taylors' guests

Bankers' Wives Were Here Too

Although the Reserve City Bankers convention was "for men only" a number of the banking officials' wives came along to enjoy a Palm Springs vacation, and stayed at nearby hotels, so as to join their husbands at the many evening parties.

Among the prominent bankers' wives who have been staying at Hotel Oasis were: Mmes. L. A. Stoner, Columbus, Ohio; J. E. McKinney and Estil Vance, Fort Worth; Willis McDonald, New York City; N. J. McKinnon, Toronto, Canada; S. M. Greer, Houston; T. D. Knight, Englewood, Colorado; D. H. Reimers, Chicago; William E. Walker, Rosemont, Pennsylvania; John Salellaris, Los Angeles; J. M. McElroy and S. B. Trott, Baltimore, and Donal O'Brien, Connecticut.

VFW Auxiliary Elects Officers

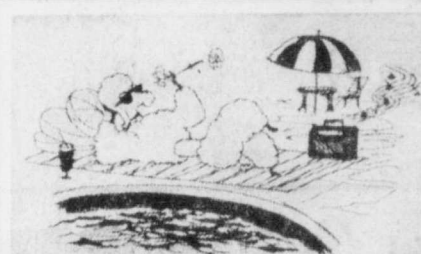

Frontier Auxiliary No. 5987 to the Veterans of Foreign Wars held election of officers at their regular meeting on Wednesday evening. The officers elected for the coming year are Mrs. George Prosser, president; Mrs. Tony Biavaseh, Sr. vice president; Mrs. Charles Mills, Jr. vice president; Mrs. Cy Oistad, treasurer; Mrs. George Tomkins, chaplain; Mrs. Mabel Bryant, conductress; Mrs. Dean Pickell, guard; and Mrs. Genevieve Prosser, three year trustee.

Installation ceremonies were held in conjunction with the instituting of a new Auxiliary of the Ladies Auxiliary Veterans Foreign Wars in Coachella on April 27.

who joined in the birthday toast at midnight were: Messrs. and Mesdames Milton Hicks, Barney Hinkle, Joe Dyer, Fred Karlen, Jack Kenaston, Jack Bligh, Paul Trousdale, Lou Manseau, Joe Froggatt, Jim Welch, Bill Sample, Ralph Singer, L. L. Oakes, Bud Markell, Dolph Obergefel, Mmes. Emily DeWare, Trudy Clappett, Charles Becker, Jacqueline Cole, Janice Chiquoine, Lee Anderson and Mr. John Gillin. Also in the party were the Trousdale's houseguests from San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Campbell.

Thunderbird's Annual Luau Presents Spectacular Show

Thunderbird maintained its reputation for fabulous luaus when it staged one of the best ever seen here on Saturday night.

The capacity crowd that filled the poolside area and overflowed indoors enjoyed a luau feast that was both sumptuous and lavish.

Shrimp and crab, sweet pork and suckling pig, roast beef and spare ribs, stacks of fresh fruits, dozens of salads and appetizers, and a tempting array of fancy desserts filled the two long tables that were heavily laden with food.

With most of the merrymakers wearing leis, straw hats and gaily-flowered shirts and sarongs or muumuis, it was a romantically colorful scene under the desert stars.

There was music and dancing and an outstanding show, with unusual lighting effects. The dancing girls were beautiful and graceful and Princess Luana, star of the Bird of Paradise show, was even more so.

Adding to the show was the use of black light and fluorescent costumes that was most dramatic.

Freddie Latouli's sword dance and the statuesque Chief with towering headdress of plumes, doing the fire dance were exciting and exotic, while Napua's comedy hula was funny and lovable.

Thunderbird's annual luau is something that is looked forward to each year . . . and many thought this was the best yet.

Yeatons Host Sunday Brunch

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Yeaton entertained twenty five Los Angeles guests at a Sunday brunch at The Tennis Club honoring their houseguests Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hill of Pasadena and Mrs. Sybil Burke of Los Angeles.

Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Downs, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Buchanan, Mrs. Robert Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Baash, Mrs. Cyrus B. Sweet, Miss Orph Klinker, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Bohan, Mr. and Mrs. McBane Beasley, the Clyde Shoemakers, Mrs. Charles C. Wright, Mrs. Ralph Fitcher, Mrs. Margaret Scott and the James Colemans.

They all gathered at the Yeatons' home at 460 Via Lola the evening before to view over 400 colored pictures taken by the Hills and Yeatons last year on their European trip.

Metzdorfs are Luncheon Hosts

An honor group of graduating students of the Hotel and Restaurant department of City College of San Francisco were recent luncheon guests in Oasis Hotel of Dewey Metzendorf, vice president of Western Hotels, Inc., and R. A. Metzendorf, manager of the Oasis. The group was accompanied by Wendell E. Muntz, chairman of the hotel department of the college, which is the only college on this coast featuring a hotel school in its curriculum.

Among those honored were: Tony Albini, Marvin Alldaffer, Don Giovannoni, Mike Herley, Leonard Lucich, Jim Morrison, Barbara Ann Pope and Bob Leiffertgen.

Floyd Romero, a graduate of this college and serving as maitre d'hotel at the Oasis for the past Winter season, joined the group for luncheon.

Weekend Parties are Numerous at Racquet Club

A Saturday night party enjoying the dinner dancing at the Racquet Club was hosted by the Bob Whittakers.

Their guests included their houseguests the Bob Van de Grifts of Oklahoma City, the Bradstreet Millers, F. B. Meyers and Leslie Coleman.

A threesome at the Club that night were Peggy Bull and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mory (he is an engineer with the Ford Motor company in Long Beach).

The Ed Krists had as their dinner guests the Art Neeleys and Mr. and Mrs. Obers (he is vice president of Federal Savings and Loan). The Krists are planning another European jaunt this Summer.

The George Alexanders who were down for the weekend, hosted a Saturday night dinner at the Racquet Club.

Their guests were Dr. and Mrs. George Kaplan, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dunas, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wolfson, Mr. and Mrs. Al Gittleson and Miss Esther Goetz of Paris.

On Sunday evening the H. H. Fosters had William D. Ireland, the Boston banker, as their guest. The two men were classmates in college.

Want Rummage for Next Fall

The Rummage Sale committee of St. Theresa School this week asked that rummage collectors start for their annual Rummage Sale next fall.

With many homeowners getting ready to close their homes for the Summer, this offers an easy way to dispose of surplus clothing, furniture, garden tools and similar items. As the sale runs for two weeks lots of merchandise is needed and contributions will be appreciated, according to Mrs. Elizabeth McIntyre who heads the committee.

A truck will pick up donations or they can be taken to the school on Ramon road. Those wishing to have the truck call, may phone Mrs. McIntyre at 4532 or 2902.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Beck are entertaining weekend guests from Hollywood, Edward Belfer of CBS TV and Kyle Thomas from Allied Casting Agency. They will see the Player Stage production of "Blithe Spirit" this weekend and then will be entertained at a steak supper.

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Hartmann of Chaska, Minnesota, arrived Friday for a brief visit with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. William Rashall.

Visitors Leave After Stay Here

Mr. and Mrs. DeHaven Ross of Greenwich, Connecticut, left Sunday after a short visit here with her sister Mildred Southwick Potter. Mr. Ross is secretary-treasurer of the Homelite corporation. The Rosses went from here to visit friends in Seattle.

Mrs. Potter went to Long Beach to see her new grandson, Robert James Bell, whose mother was the former Mildred Potter. While there she attended the wedding of the son of a close friend, Mrs. Louis Wells Began. She met the Rosses when they flew in from Connecticut and brought them home with her.

Guests Visit at Matthews' Home

Mrs. Molly Porter of Westwood returned home on Friday after a week's stay with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Matthews of North Calle Rolph. Dinner and show at Chi Chi, cocktails and dinner at Tennis Club, canasta parties and sightseeing entertained the visitor.

Weekend guests at the Matthews home were the Kermit Pollocks of Pasadena who enjoyed Sunday brunch at the Tennis Club.

Heart Group in Annual Dinner

Activities of the Riverside County Heart association were revived last night at the annual meeting of the organization at Victoria club at the county seat.

Dr. Bert W. Meyers and Dr. David State were the principal speakers detailing the latest advances in medical science in combating the great disease toll in the nation.

Dr. E. Danford Quick, president of the association, presided. Dinner arrangements were in charge of Dr. William Kinney.

Dropped in at the Racquet Club on our way home... to say adios to Teddy Noell and hear him play one more time... before he left for the Sands in Las Vegas...

Surprise at the Sunday night chuckwagon... given by Paul and Jean Trousdale for the Ruffoff Cutters... was the birthday cake that appeared near midnight for J. Ross Clarke...

Julian and Edith Bamberger... just back from a week's stay at the Wigwam in Litchfield, Arizona... left Tuesday for their home in Salt Lake... They have been at their Via Lola home since January... and the Hawaiian luncheon Mrs. Bamberger gave at the Tennis Club... was one of the prettiest of the social season... They plan to come out early next fall... with the thought that they will visit the islands again...

At The Luau

Wonderful luau at Thunderbird Saturday night... The luau buffet was a magnificent array... and the show was exceptionally good... The Bird of Paradise spectacle was pleasingly different... Princess Luana was charming... Freddie Latouli, the knife dancer has never been better... Fire Dance... the Chief did was exciting... Most unusual was the use of black light and fluorescent costuming for the dancers... We sat at the Froggatt table... and Joe told me that he and Phyllis leave May 11 to fly to Hawaii for a fortnight's vacation... Their friends, the Emil Sherenacks of New York will accompany them... Nice to see Norma Pagano again... Also at the luau were Owen and Babe Churchill... the Jack Kenastons, Bob Kenastons, Ruth and Lou Manseau... the Ben Gales, Belmont and BJ Sanchez... Edith and Dick Edwards (Dick was lured into doing a hula)... Margaret and S. P. Manasse... and hundreds more...

After the luau... we made a late arrival at Rock Point... where Helen and Walter Braunschweiger were entertaining for some of his banker friends... Two of their houseguests were making divine music... Walter Loesser was playing Strauss... and Byron Williams (violinist under contract with MGM) was playing some of his own compositions... Harold Tonne and his accordion supplied more music... and it was a thrill to sit there and listen to the music... and look out the windows at the lights of Palm Springs away down below...

Commander Maury and Louise Horner are heading for Glencoe, Illinois this coming Sunday... and with them will go two handsome oil paintings by O. E. L. Graves... Winners in VFW Essay Contest Here Announced

Mrs. Raymond Lusby, Essay chairman of The Veterans of Foreign Wars Frontier Auxiliary Tuesday announced local winners of the Annual National Essay Contest sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary, V.F.W. The winners, all of Palm Springs high school, were first place award of a $25.00 Savings Bond, Joe Leonard; second place award of $7.50 to Dixie Vogels; third place award of $5.00 to Meredith Helm. These awards will be presented at the high school award assembly. Honorable mention goes to Shirley Larkin, last year's winner, and Dawson Hayward.

Judges for the Palm Springs contest were William S. Ford, the Youth Activities chairman of the Kiwanis club, Dr. William P. Aiken, past president Toastmasters, Mrs. Robert W.

Peterson, of the Delphian Society, and Norman Lofthus, manager of KCMJ.

DESERT HOT SPRINGS Auxiliary also sponsored a contest at the Palm Valley School under the direction of Mrs. Leonard Dodd, chairman. The winners of Palm Valley School were Ann Gail McGrew, who won the first place award of an American flag and Fred Fayen, who placed second and will be awarded a desk flag.

Judges for the Desert Hot Springs contest all of whom reside in that city were Pauline Kull, the American Legion president, Joe Kanya, principal of the elementary school and Harry Chester.

MRS. CY OISTED, the 22nd District chairman of the Essay contest reported that two of the local winners also placed in the district. Joe Leonard in second place and Ann Gail McGrew in third place and they will be awarded a citation each. Judges for the District were Oliver B. Jaynes, of The Desert Sun, Warren Linville, principal of Katherine Finchy School and Ruby Loughran, English teacher at Katherine Finchy school.

The title of the essay was "What Civil Defense Means to Me." The contest is sponsored annually by the Ladies Auxiliary to the V.F.W. and is open to all students of the high school grades. The first place award to the National winner is $1000.

Scouts Sponsor Jamboree Film Benefit Sunday

Palm Springs district Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts are sponsoring a moving picture Sunday afternoon at the Plaza theater for the benefit of Scout work in the Village area. The show will start at 2 o'clock.

The picture to be shown is that of the 1954 Jamboree at Irvine ranch. Other short subjects and a Walt Disney feature are also on the program.

Tickets are 50 cents each and may be obtained from any Boy or Cub Scout and also at the theater, "if there are any left."

(Anderson Photo)

Blithe Spirit to be Shown this Weekend

Player Stage will present Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit" in a repeat performance, by popular request, this weekend at World War Memorial Hall auditorium.

The comedy will be presented Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights.

Cast for this production, this weekend only, is headed by Martin Beck, Irene Rauch, Verkina Beck and Helen Morris, assisted by John Kramer, Loraine Harper and Frances Holmes.

Special settings for the play have been designed by Lee Krikorian.

Tickets are on sale at Palm Springs Drug, Village Pharmacy, Palm Springs Music Company or at the door. Reservations may be made by calling 7280.
